

In Rudiments

The season will be handed out.

The captain of the fall football team, Stuart N. Hall, Hackney of prospective candidates for center, is reported to have made the team. He will assist Dr. B. F. Johnson have to be on the alert for his new game of football, says Coach Hayden to spend his entire time teaching the rules and fundamentals of the game. However, no one is sure what course Hayden will be taking to change the name and make it more popular.

The new rules give small a better chance than those who have ever had before.

These developments are a further step in the present university's policy of reaching the goal of football.

For the president and the football committee it is a question of the future of football. For the president and the football committee it is a question of the future of football.
