HOPING FOR VICTORY

Much Further Advanced in Preparation for Team Play Than Hawkeyes

New City, Ia., Sept. 29.—The first outfielding of the Missouri Tigers be hand this week and did not result in raising the hopes of the supporters of any considerable extent.

A disappointing week in the line was shown in starting fashion.

The only man now trying for a field position who has all of those nights, the brilliance and on last year's freshman team.

At present the average weight of the of the 110-pound pound.

The last week and next difficulty is ending very poorly on the scorers.

When the latter, the fancy gives the on the canvas a five yard line, it took them: eight down to put the pocket out.

Coach Hoffmann is a philosopher, as one who is not lost in expressing his opinions; but it is easy to see that he was considerably distracted by the recent showing. If some fine material does not show up, it is difficult to see how Missouri stands any chance of repeating last year's feat of confirming the valley's t capacity to win big position.

In the box field, a brighter story told. While the candidates were rather light, they are good, fast, strong men. The first set this afternoon consisted of Lights at quarter, Flackly at full and Hills and Hall at the halfback. Three of them were placed in the Thanksgiving day games at Kansas City last year, Hills, the scores, was one of the most promising men on last year's freshman team.

In the second set of backs there were Founders at quarterback, Newell at full and Dexter and Durst at the halfback. Founders is the only one of this quartette who played in more than one game last year. Dexter's eligibility is in doubt.
