Great Attractions

A special interest to dramatic and athletic students and students of all colleges and universities will be the appearance of David Bishop in Science Hall on October 12. Besides his song, Mr. Bishop will give a recital with piano accompaniment of Longfellow's "Ring of Destiny." As a dramatic singer Mr. Bishop has no inferior, it is said, and he has an equal on the American concert stage.

The meets will be held at the low price of 15 cents and 25, but participants of men's for the Y. U. C. A. recital, and those reports of entertainments of the year, will be given a grant of 25 cents when the event is to the benefit of the Science Hall.

The whole story about this great series of entertainments which includes lectures Bishop, Mend Preel, the greatest woman violinist in the world, and Schumann-Helik, the best known and most beloved of all the great shipbrokers before the American public today, will be found in the advertising columns of this house.

Meeting is Open

It has been decided to make the meeting of the Spectaculous club on Thursday an open one. Prof. J. O. Smith will be there and will give the "The Rational System of Working." The address will be of especial value to teachers. The lecture will be given in the general lecture rooms of the physics building.

Senate Meets

This first meeting of the university senate today at 4 p.m. is the first gathering of the governing board of the university and there are many important matters to come up for consideration. Prof. Geo. E. Maclean who has returned from his northern trip, will preside.
