TENNIS TOURNAMENT BEGINS
TODAY ON UNIVERSITY COURTS

The full tournament tennis tournament will begin this afternoon at 2:00. Two important matches were made yesterday by those in charge of the athletics of the university. The first was in regard to a graduate of any school entering this tournament. It was held that according to the previous announcement that no undergraduate nor senior member of the university who was enrolled in the university to which the honor belonks is to be entered shall enter the university with the same feel. The duty of the post are as yet unsolved. The women of Iowa City and the university are curiously and divinely to become and the members of the board of education, past and present, will decide the question and the faculty fall. The duties of the post are those to which the member of the board of education, past and present, will decide the question and the faculty fall. The duties of the post are not to be performed nor to be agreed upon later. The Missouri has had a big increase in the last week and the Iowa 6. HAWKERS HAVE HOPES OF WHIPPING TIGERS

Iowa will have one exceedingly hard task to stop. He is also a star when it comes to kicking the ball.

The Tigers have an advantage over Iowa when it comes to past records. Iowa being several games behind, both of the last two games have been won by Missouri after a hard fight.

Encourage Team.

Chosen by the best exhibition of university spirit seen at Iowa this year, the Iowa football team left a 1-1-1 record for Columbia. In marked contrast to the Mass-meeting of the night before when only a small crowd turned out, several hundred students gathered on Clinton street at 2:45 and headed in the varsity band, led by the student. Here the largest crowd, which has started an Iowa team on a trip for years was gathered. Reed Lane and "Noon Hound" locomotives led the yells and everybody joined with the band in
