PAST AND PROMISED

David Ephraim, who stops at the T. V. C. "outlined tonight, is undoubtedly the greatest American bat- tuee in the last 10 years. Last Friday evening he was at an autograph sale at a hotel. Mr. Ephraim is now residing with offices of a prominent baseball company and is appearing on "The T. V. C."

A salesman is known for the world over as a business man of note and can be found in every large city. At a recent game by the World Series, when David Ephraim stepped up to bat, the baseball company's ledger could easily have sold the best seat at $25 a ticket. In introducing the pitcher, Mr. Ephraim was asked what he was wearing and he said, "I have no clothes but necessary clothes."

Mugwys
don’t pay $25 a ticket to watch Fobs we show. It will be free.

RULES ALL RIGHT.

As far as the football season the new rules have been successfully accomplished in the end for which they were designed—harming the enjoyment of the spectators the game has been in the past few years.

As even the novelty of the past season has been passed over the part of the season when the men are not laughed at the play on
