BY THE AUTHOR OF "WIGMORE ON EVIDENCE"
A POCKET CODE
OF THE
RULES OF EVIDENCE IN TRIALS OF LAW
By JOHN HENRY WIGMORE, LL. D.

Printed on thin, high-grade paper, 16mo, handsomely bound in black morocco, gilt edges, with flexible covers, to carry conveniently in the pocket for handy use.

Price, $4.00 net.

A condensed treatise of the existing rules of Evidence, for perusal and ready reference in crucial moments of trial. Arranged with sectional references in the monumental five-volume treatise of "Wigmore on Evidence," so that the detailed illumination, and printed on a superior quality of paper with alternate blank pages to receive the notations of the careful practitioner who desires to keep up with the course of judicial decisions, and to preserve his knowledge in accurate and ready form for prompt usage.

SOME OPINIONS:

The same merit which made the larger book so successful mark the smaller book.

Mr. Wigmore has again earned our thanks.—New York Law Journal.

No one is better fitted to prepare such a book than is Professor Wigmore.—Columbia Law Review.

That such a book as this must be exceedingly useful to students and practitioners is obvious upon the most casual inspection.—American Law Review.

No more important work will be produced by any law writer in 1916.—Lawyer and Banker, Tacoma, Washington.

The high reputation of its author insures for it ready acceptance by the bar.—Bench and Bar, New York.

Just Published—A New and Enlarged Edition of

STIMSON'S
LAW DICTIONARY
A Concise Law Dictionary of Words, Phrases and Maxims, with an Explanatory List of Abbreviations Used in Law Books.

By Frederic Jessup Stimson, Professor of Comparatory Legislation in Harvard University. New Edition, Revised and Enlarged, By Harvey Cortlandt Voorhees, of the Boston Bar.

8vo. 191. Law Backram. 346 Pages. Price, $3.00 net, Delivered.

The new enlarged edition of Prof. Stimson's valuable work furnishes to busy lawyers and students the best handbook of the kind.

Prof. Stimson's plan was to produce a concise Law Dictionary, giving in common English an explanation of the words and phrases, English as well as Bacon, Latin, or French, which are of common technical use in the law, and he sought to give the popular and usual acceptation of each phrase in much the same general shape in which it would stand in the mind of the trained lawyer.

The admirable work of Prof. Stimson as originally prepared by him has been largely retained in the new edition, and nearly two thousand important words have been added and many citations and references to text books and decisions inserted, designed to lead the researcher to a fuller understanding of the meaning and practical use of the words defined and explained. No other Law Dictionary contains so many definitions and translations of French and Norman-French law terms. A special feature of the new edition is the very full list (fifty-three pages) of Abbreviations used in law books.

PHI ALPHA DELTA IS STRONG FRATERNITY
IN ALUMA OF LAW SCHOOL IT IS MAKING RAPID STRIDES

National Organization Dues Twenty-four Chapters in Many of the Metropolitan Law Schools

Nearly three years ago, in the latter part of the year 1899, a new organization, essentially apprenticeship to the college of law, came into being. Its need had long been felt, for it was a fact of unquestioned truth that the law school of the university had long since grown beyond the scope of a single law fraternity. It was then that Phi Alpha Delta, now a national fraternity of great strength, was born out of an apparent need here at the university. Starting out with a small but solid and energetic nucleus of four men, it has always made a name for itself and never for itself an enviable name in the ranks of those who do things. The local chapter now boast a membership of twenty-two, nine of whom are members of the present senior class.

The Iowa chapter, which represents but one unit of the twenty-four chapters composing the national organization, had as its president Stanley G. Grimes, a member of the class of 1909, who, after having attended the Iowa College of law during his freshman year, spent the second at Wesleyan Reserve University, where he was

This year has marked the occurrence of two signal events in the fraternity's life, the establishment in the local chapter, name of "Hammond chapter," and the installation of a chapter of Phi Alpha Delta. The fraternity saw upon itself the task of founding a chapter of Phi Alpha Delta. The charter members, including Messrs. Glass, are as follows: Lake W. Bonner, Charles A. Freeman, T. L. Gilder, Frederick F. Koons, Henry C. Kerck, Daniel C. McCuly, Paul M. Pierson and T. M. Nourse, four seniors at the college of law; Frank P. Morris and John Higgins of the University of Minnesota, a member of the class of 1911; and Ray H. Wise and Forrest M. Olinger of the class of 1911.

During the second semester of the year 1908-9, a charter of Phi Alpha Delta was reserved for the Hammond chapter, which was duly admitted to the fraternity board. The charter members, including Messrs. Glass, are as follows: Lake W. Bonner, Charles A. Freeman, T. L. Gilder, Frederick F. Koons, Henry C. Kerck, Daniel C. McCuly, Paul M. Pierson and T. M. Nourse, four seniors at the college of law; Frank P. Morris and John Higgins of the University of Minnesota, a member of the class of 1911; and Ray H. Wise and Forrest M. Olinger of the class of 1911.

The present membership of the chapter embraces the following members of the class of 1911: J. F. H. Hillman, Ray H. Wise, F. B. Olinger, E. S. Wingard, Ray H. Garrett, Bolling J. Cook, Lincoln L. Taylor and George W. Schmidt, of the class of 1912; George L. Nunn, George H. Dundur, Harry Tuller, Stanley M. Hauck, Robert Hauck and Henry D. Appel, of the class of 1913; John S. Llewellyn, Frank D. Beebe, Gunnell F. Gabriel, Robert Hauck and Henry D. Appel, of the class of 1914. At the present time the membership of the chapter embraces the names of various parts of the country, principally in Iowa and the Midwest. These men have been elected to membership in the fraternity, and the officers have been elected by the members of the fraternity, and the officers have been elected by the members of the chapter.

The present membership of the chapter embraces the following members of the class of 1911: J. F. H. Hillman, Ray H. Wise, F. B. Olinger, E. S. Wingard, Ray H. Garrett, Bolling J. Cook, Lincoln L. Llewellyn, Frank D. Beebe, Gunnell F. Gabriel, Robert Hauck and Henry D. Appel, of the class of 1914.

There has been a fact of unequivocal importance to the fraternity since the installation of the Hammond chapter, name of "Hammond chapter," and the installation of a chapter of Phi Alpha Delta. The charter members, including Messrs. Glass, are as follows: Lake W. Bonner, Charles A. Freeman, T. L. Gilder, Frederick F. Koons, Henry C. Kerck, Daniel C. McCuly, Paul M. Pierson and T. M. LAW SOCIETY GIVES

PRACTICAL TRAINING

The principal purpose of the law schools is to prepare students for the practice of law. The administration requires them to be graduates of a certain number of years, and to have passed a certain number of examinations in the practice of the law. The law schools offer courses in both law and business, and the graduating students are required to pass a certain number of examinations in the practice of the law.

ALUMNI OF HARVARD

FRANZES LAW SCHOOL

The dean of the school has spoken highly of the work which the various law schools offer. Some of the law schools offer courses in both law and business, and the graduating students are required to pass a certain number of examinations in the practice of the law. ANY time you want to see a group of the kind of men who wear the kind of clothes we sell, you can see them on the porch of any of the best country clubs, or at any of the resorts where fashionable people go in summer.

Young fellows home from college; business men who can spare a little time for recreation now and then; men who give attention to their dress under all circumstances; these are the men who like and wear Hart Schaffner & Marx fine clothes. The point we want to make is this: Clothes that are preferred by men of that type are the sort of clothes that every man, no matter what he does, or where he goes, ought to wear. The air of distinction, of "class," of careful style which is to be had only in such clothes, is worth a good deal to any man.
