Y. M. C. A. BANQUET WILL BE BIG EVENT

TO BE HELD AT BURLINGTON, IOWA, FRIDAY, MARCH 5

Great Speakers to Be Present - Event Intended "Campaign for Friendship"

By MARVIN A. BRUFF

On Tuesday evening, March 5, there will occur the annual Y. M. C. A. banquet, which is to be held at the Burlington Hotel at 6 o'clock. Coming just at the beginning of the big "campaign for friendship," which the association is preparing to carry on during that week, the banquet will be the first big event of the campaign, and an effort will be made to make it an even greater affair than the banquet last year.

The plan of the evening is a detailed one. Cantor Alfred L. C. Mumma, head of the small parties, will send the list of speakers, which is to be composed of six men and some of the other leaders who will take part in the meeting.
The Iowa Alumnus for February, 1932, which comes out on the last week of the month, contains several good articles.

A series of articles on the presidents of the alumni by Theodore Wan­ner, L. A. 79, is attracting special attention, and this month he has an article on Oliver M. Spencer, presi­dent from 1861 to 1865. E. C. Robins has an article explaining the working of the Alumni-Student Loan Association, which was or­ganized to make small loans to stu­dents engaged in university activities and has already made several loans. E. R. Van Horn has prepared an article on the rifle team, and Professor A. G. Smith also has a new one on the Chicago conference and basketball.

Equal society ought to be meta­bolically promoted at Wisconsin if the co-eds succeed in an enterprise con­nected with the country fair. The latest invasion into masculine activi­ties is the building of their own merry-go-round to be used in the big country fair on March 13. It is supposed that they are going to do all the saving, measuring, painting and build­ing themselves.
