NUMBER 103
Y. W. C. A. BANQUET TO BE BIG AFFAIR
WILL BE OPEN TO ALL UNIVERSITY GIRLS
COUNT LIEBOWTZ COMES TO IOWA NOTED BOHEMIAN UNIVERSITY GUEST
In a little more than a week the Did you ever go to a country fair— the kind where you can buy all sort of things to eat, where sideshows abound, and where loud-voiced barkers, quack-doctors, and whistles vie with one another in creating a din? This is the kind of a fair that the Y. W. C. A. proposes to present to the people next Saturday, March 3rd, at 7:30 p.m. in the university armory.
The main floor will be devoted to booths, while the various rooms will house sideshows of all descriptions.
All university organizations will be represented and will present a varied assortment of attractions. Fields will have charge of a booth, where various members in Swedish costume will be on hand. The Supreme Court of the United States will be represented by one of the oldest Bohemian families and a hard-hearted battle of wits is said to be assured.

As this will be the last mid-week meeting before the big, "Campaign of Friendship" which the T. M. C. A. will carry out next week, the final application of the plans for the campaign will be made. With this and the address by Professor Dunlap the meeting will be well worth attending, and it is expected that the attendance will be the biggest of the year. The meeting will be called at 7:30 o'clock, as usual, at Close hall.

year's annual meeting must be at the offices in the Old Capital building by Friday, or the staff will be compelled to let the copy go to press without Friday. It is said that the important department is securing many good jokes and pictures, which is a source of satisfaction to that department, as they hope to make a great dead put out of this particular section. It is expected that about 250 pages will be devoted to the humorous section of the paper. Anyone having any jokes or pictures that they wish to have published in this section are required to hand them to any member of the staff or drop them in the boxes located throughout the buildings.
