Special Preparations for Big G. U. Dinner

COMPLETE PROGRAM WILL BE ANNOUNCED SUNDAY

Seniors Class to Be in Broads-Tickets Will Be on Sale in a Day or Two

Final preparations are now being made for the big university dinner which is to take place next Tuesday. The committee having the arrangements in charge has been constantly at work during the past few days, and by Monday everything will be in readiness for the big event.

The program will be announced in the Tuesday ‘Hawkeye’. This year’s program will probably include the performance by the band, and the entertainment received by the guests last year. It is the intention to have entertainment during the dinner and possibly after dinner.

The entertainment will be arranged by Mr. Meehan, the star of the baseball team, and it is believed that the entertainment will be of the first order.

Colleges offer new games to the students of the University of Iowa

As the fifth annual game of inter-collegiate baseball gets under way, the University of Iowa is now ready to take on the University of Illinois at the opening game of the series.

The University of Iowa is expected to win, according to the general report of the local team, but the University of Illinois is expected to give a great deal of satisfaction.

MIGHTY ALUMNI GATHER

FOR BANQUET AT CLAYTON

River City

April 8, Date of Big Gathering in

River City

More than eighty graduates and former students of the state university gathered around the banquet

table at Clayton on April 8, to pay­ tribute to their alma mater and sound the praises of the University of Iowa.

The banquet was held at the Vanderbilt Inn. The toast presidentor of the occasion, speaking over

by President A. Smith, M. D., spoke on "The University and Its Alumni." The program followed:

"The University and Its Alumni,

President John G. Bowan, B. A.
