Hawkley and Illini In Eleven-Round Tie

Iowa Tray Tates One-Score Tie With Champs

Zimmer Holden, Illini Swatmen to Five Hits—Scores saved for Both Teams.

Our Mr. Zimmer’s bat is in the ring. Twenty-five hits apiece against the champions of all the west yesterday afternoon in the Iowa防晒, the crafty dentist helped his teammates to a 1-to-1 tie in eleven innings, the last three of which were played in the rain.

The thirteenth hit of the day— and probably the last—hit by Illinois batsmen, split out into Patterson in right before Misses Stewart and G. Hill, the noted coordinator of the Illini, declared that there were too many raindrops falling to permit of good baseball and it was necessary to call a halt in the proceedings.

Purified baseball was the order of the day and every one who was present at the aldred by the art of the bat. The result came as a surprise to the Iowa fans, who had rather expected an easy victory, and consequently the Illini were pleased to measure themselves against a Illini hitting in view of the misfortunes of the past week.

But the Iowa Brigades, experienced in the hard charge of heavy artillery, were rightly judged to have been supported by his infield.

Ten of the champions hit on the first, and not more than a half dozen batsmen faced the hard charging and the afternoon by the visitors. They entered five hits; three clean hits, one which Strickler would have stopped on a dry field, and one miserable popup just back of either of which events would have doubled him, Zimmer kept cool at all times, and after the third did not allow the enemy to score.

The Iowa outfield also gave a great exhibition, Mesdon hitting down a terrific squeeze from Brown in the trot in with one hand when it seemed labelled for the football field. Patterson and Curry also took some of their chances without success.

Both Hauser and Von Lattck zero Zimmer had support behind the bat. Von Lattck was late in settling in the box and Hauser thought the first three innings. Von Lattck showed a wonderful yen to second when called upon to set it.

The Iowa infield was the weak spot in the defense. The third base row chugging up to Major, Berry and Seabrook. Seabrook’s boldness was rewarded at this bat, the ball being knocked badly on the head of the batter. Berry and Seabrook contributed the errors which gave Illinois their runs and 17 hits.

Professor Gilchrist selected for the Closer, he got three of the ten Illini in innings. There are a number of full-timers who have not yet been seen in the left field.

It is impressive that the three orders to be given in 92 extra will be sealed.

Illustrated Lecture

Official invitations have been issued by the University of Iowa for an illustrated lecture on Monday evening, April 11, in the liberal arts auditorium by Luther A. Brewster of Cedar Rapids.

Mr. Brewster is widely known as the general manager of the Cedar Rapids Oratorio Society, and the town prize of the best- known, and most noted, is that the "Smith and the Making of史上." is illustrated by about forty choice works which are well and without doubt be one of the finest "kens."
It is Thursday.

In the past there have been opposite sex. Perhaps in that article but the play was even, consistent and intellectual in that we had an exaggerated better-played games against the inferior league. Large measure to inferior intellectual capacity. man's idea of the calibre of single copy.

It is sometimes to have fared about as badly as we in the matter of position of players.

Let's see everyone boast the ball team.

Now We Write an article which we remarked upon the fact that men became suspect in the view for knowledge by the opposite sex. Perhaps that is article we exposed the cause of more man, rather strongly because we were accused by the fair sex of being unfair in that we had exaggerated idea of the culture of man's mental capacity.

Any question which we may have exhibited was completely composed upon the announcement of election to Phi Beta Kappa, membership which is covered by all greater events. We were astonished to learn, upon glancing at the list of the fortunate ones, that only two more men were successful. It is to be seen that this manly conduct has been a consistent feature of the pest, and that, in the future, decency will be the rule.

The work of the team will, of course, decrease, better improvement, but it is reasonably expected that each will succeed. In the meantime, it is anticipated that occasional errors will be overlooked, and that depression will not be sufficient to creep quietly into the spirit of the followers.

We have the first rules—also the last rules.

YOU'RE not so much interested in the remodeling of our store as we are, of course; we don't expect that. But it is an event of some importance to you; because it means a better store; and that means a greater opportunity for us to be of service to you.

This is an old business with a young spirit, and that's as good a thing to say about a business as about a man. We're making it a better business all the time; the improved building is part of making it better; another part is to cultivate in our own minds; and the minds of our employees, the idea that we shall prosper most when we serve your interests most.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES

are one of the means by which we serve; when we sell such good as these we're doing the best that can be done for you in clothes. The other goods we sell are of the same high-class; there's no reason why we shouldn't do the best possible for you; and every reason why we should.

The benefit we get from your trade depends on the benefit we give.

You may be inconvenienced a little during our building changes; we shall make as little inconvenience as possible. Come in anyway: it's a step toward better service for you. We'll be here to welcome you; and doing business right along.

New models for Spring suits and overcoats are now ready; smart, lively, snappy styles; young men's clothes that are different. We can do exceptionally well for you at $18, $20, $25 and $30

Watts, the Illinois southpaw, has something on the Iowa hitters, while the boys of the Corn hold their own on the mound. Bill at first base has done a splendid job of fielding, but the Iowa drones have been able to do anything as even as it could be. Watts, pitcher, and Berry drew singles at various times. Berry's arm would have been a double, as it went over Brown's head to the running track, but stuck in the mud there.

The fourth hit came near breaking up the game. It was a double play by Stokely in the ninth inning. Two were down at the time, so it was up to Haines to send in the run. The football star requested a hard line smash to center, but it was a bit too hard, and Thomas, coming in, picked it up off the fielder's glove for his own run. The second was merely a short single by left, Wessel going to second with the hit, but the runner was surrounded by both teams in their efforts to gain a fly on the retiring demons.

The lineup:

Outs made without sacrifice were made for him. Moulton scored for Iowa, when the third round, Breton, 3b hit, but stuck in the mud there. That chance to both runs were gifts from the opposing defenses. Watts, pitcher, and Berry drew singles at various times.
