DUAL MEET TOMORROW WITH AGGIES SQUAD

NOPE FAVORS AMES IN BATTLE OF OLD RIVALS
Kearly Line, Are Announced—Most Stars at 2 O'clock—Two Re- lays Will Be Run

The only variety dual meet of the year on Iowa field will be held to- morrow afternoon with the tradit- ional foe from Ames. The meet is scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock.

On form, the Aggies ought to win handily and with some points to spare. The difference in 11 of strength of the two teams will not be so great as the case a month ago, but the visitors still have a safe margin on paper. One or two de- velopments during the past week, particularly the return of former Captain Keeney, have helped Iowa's chances materially; but an- other has deprived the team of a man who was counted upon as prac- tically sure of a score, so the average is about even.

Iowa should be able to put up an even fight in the dashes, hurdles, quarter and half-mile runs, and the two jumps, with a fighting chance in the mile. Where Clarman, a former Hawkeye, will run for the Aggies. The visitors appear to have almost certain wins in the two relays, pole vault, and both weight events. The two relay boats about even. Three places will count for the team.

The list of events follows:

220-yard dash—Ames: Clutter, Kaiser and Keeney; Iowa: Cabellman and Joslyn.
220-yard dash—Ames: Clutter, Kaiser and Keeney; Iowa: Cabell- man and Joslyn.
Half-mile runs—Amer: Haggard, Joslyn and Egelston; Iowa: Cabellman and Joslyn.
