MAROONS DEFEATED IN THRILLING GAME
Stagg's Men Lose, 3 to 2 After Hard Fight

ZIMMER'S WORK IS BIGGEST FACTOR
Pitcher Twirls Great Game and Heads Rallies—Catch by Moulton and Hothomy's Timely Hit Help.

Four center-fielding by a dastardly middleground picked out by the state Mr. Stagg, great all around work by Little chief electrons and some timely twood by Hawkeye batters gave Iowa the lead over the Maroons 3 to 2. In 1 of 2. Chief of those ingredients was the work of Zimmer, the Maroon pitching phenom.

Nothing could have pleased the Iowa fans better than a victory over Stagg's purists, led by Mr. Boyle, who has been professional because he has permission to play with the professionals. Maybe there is such a thing as poetic compensation for certain wires who was not too much considered a do-gooder in Chicago.

Zimmer headed both rallies which won the games, leading off with a clean whiff which eventually resulted in a score. Besides that he pitched an invincible game, held his position perfectly, and whipped that sturdy slumberer. Behind him, his support played all but favorably, one blow being left on the shelf of the Iowa fondling melodies. Zimmer saved the day in the ninth by a spectacular catch and Berry dug for several hard drives.

The Chicago team showed to strong, and the Maroons besotted showed a tendency to bend against the pitch. The Maroons could not afford to confess in the top. They refused to stay down. After being left, apparently curiously in front of the scores, when they staged a rally in the third, they came back strong in the long drive, and Lonsford's over top on the score. Hawkeye batters did not score when they were at the plate, and the visitors caused little more trouble until two were out in the ninth, although both runners were left on base. It was a great rally by Moulton to save Teichgraeber's hit at the opening of that Ninth. Thus Negroes behind a sweater and Paterson's fisted for three bases, and tried to steal home but was nipped of the pad.

Ball singled with one down in the Chicago ninth, but was forced by Captain Boyle, the slightest by blemished athlete. Boyle of seven time state second, and Gran Robertson, the demon hitter, whipped.

Moulton got to second in the Iowa ninth, but was forced and George Robertson, pitcher, proved the product and ought to know better, threw his impediment roller over the dome of the Maroon battery. He went to third on Hawkeye's infield out after Patterson struck out, and God who frizzled to Mann.

Mann was done in order to THIRD, but Melson led for Iowa. The Maroons hit twenty-five singles, all in the second, and seven singles, over one single which Maroon overrung was second and caught. Yankee Lonsford did it in a style which Caperton managed to deduce to Roberts in time to get the out.

The Maroons were easy marked in the first half, while Iowa led by the big little Zimmer, out of a rally which went two runs across Alexandria. Lonsford singled with a line shot that left for one base. Strickler got four straight balls, putting on the man at second, while Lonsford, then out, but, Hawkeye, who was in left of the place of Curry, shot a clean single to curve the man at third. Zimmer made a fine catch, and Teamtorok also helped for the place when Carleton let the pill pass. Ball�� even responded well, and started the ball toward that place, but two runs were in, with Mann on third. Lonsford, who was by Hawkeye was handled by the late almost as it had seen (Patterson) at the mound. Men then the third, and two runs were in, with Mann on third. Lonsford, who was the man, was the base runner, and Mann hit the ball and got free then, Mann hit the ball and Mann held the ball.

A walk in the fourth is a jumper ball which was carried in by the Maroons, and Hage's single in the fifth advanced the Hawkeye nothing. Unequal to the Kansas State team, the Maroons in the first, the man up to the fourth. Ballinger hit his roller and then three live, Louie beating the ball out. He fell as he crossed the base, and in the process of getting up was tagged by Norges, and called out. But that isn't all the play. Robert hit with a single one in the Chicago half of the fourth, giving the ball to a more of a rally. Presses (A), Engstrom (L) and boy, while the ball was in the same man. Wheeler (A), was tagged. It was a short run. Kals all out from Keeney, with Kaiser third. Time. Chasing the other Ames entry.

BOOST FOR JOE McCONNELL--His Work, and for Iowa

IOWANS SHOULD BACK McCONNELL IN INDIA
Reases Given Why Hawkeyes Should Support Him.

GREAT OPPORTUNITY IN THE FAR EAST
McConnell is Willing to Give His Life and Students of Iowa Should Give Him Hearty Support.

Why Give?
All university men should be interested in J. J. McConnell, Jr., because he is an alumnus of the university, a man of great influence when here as a student, as president of the local association, a well known literary man, scholar and scholar. His leave for India went to end as general secretary at one of the large universities there. McConnell contemplates giving a large number of a student's work in India. If he is willing to give the life, we are; we ought to be able to give a part of the necessary support. It is this opportunity of making a real contribution to the best life of the Indian students that is great to Iowa. We are interested in McConnell because of the significance his work will have in India.

The young men of India are in a state of intellectual unrest. The old religion does not satisfy them. It does not give them the basis for moral conduct which every nation must have before it can rise in the scale of civilization. They are waiting for the message which the great civilizations of old have offered to them. Here is Iowa's opportunity.

The need of the students of India should especially appeal to the students of Iowa because India's life is essentially intellectual. India has always been a leader in philosophical thought, but unfortunately, her philosophy has had in it nothing vital, nothing living, nothing in morals. The problem of India is a moral problem but it involves an intellectual appeal, which only one whose educational training has been as high as the best men from Iowa are, should be interested in. In order to give this intellectual appeal and should give McConnell his hearty support in order that this appeal may be met.

The committee will meet with high after Wednesday night meet.

HOW MONEY WILL BE RAISED
On Thursday of this week a committee of picked men will canvass the students of the university to raise funds to be used in support of McConnell's work. The amount is a not a large one but is necessary. The students have been appointed among the members of the committee, and it is expected that every man in the university will be reached by some member of the committee.

On Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the natural science auditorium Arthur Rush, president of students and those interested in the work McConnell is entering upon, will address meeting of students and those interested in the work McConnell is entering upon. Mr. Rush is a personal friend of the present president of China, and of many of China's new cabinet, is a world-traveler and a stirring speaker. He will present Iowa's opportunities in the mission of the Orient and one should miss this chance to hear him. Immediately after the address he will meet with the committee for conference in regard to the canvass and it is very important that every member be present.

It is hoped and expected that every student will contribute as much as he can afford in this fund, which will mean so much in the life of the students of India. The fact that McConnell is an alumnus means that he is sure to do service in a worthy cause, should appeal in every Iowa student. No matter how large or how small the contribution made, it will be gratefully received. There is not one student who cannot, if he will, help this fund.

The appeal is made for the great work McConnell goes to do. No necessary expense can be ascertained in the collection of this fund; no pecuniary gain falls to any one concerned either in the collection or the production of the money. Help the cause alongside!

WHAT IOWANS THINK OF McCONNELL'S WORK
Prominent University Men are Enthusiastic.

"MIKE" HYLAND URGES IOWA SUPPORT
Pres. Bowman and Many Professors and Students Write Their Views of the Plans.

In your effort and the effort of other students in the university to send Joe McConnell to the universities in India. I believe that Mr. McConnell will carry, very well, for the ideals which are at the basis of the work he is about to do. In addition to the good which Mr. McConnell would do in India, the effort which we can make and him will react most favorably upon ours.

I am, faithfully yours,
JOHN G. BOWMAN.

"Mike" Hyland Boosts for Iowa Influence
With reference to your favor of the first instant relative to Joe McConnell and his proposed work in India.

It is with great pleasure I turn to the part of the students of the university and yourself in aid of Joe McConnell and the great mission of the Orient.

Such a move on the part of the students of our university will create a large amount of favorable comment throughout our state and country. The interest in the field of work is very great in the smaller denominational institutions in Iowa, and it is difficult for any one to think of an act on the part of the university or the students of the university which would be more ideal, wholesome, and benefit the university and the community.

I assure you we will be more than successful in raising the necessary $500, and by my acquaintance at the university I know of no man more capable of carrying on such a line of work than Joe McConnell.

Very truly yours,
MARK H. HYLAND.

Prof. Pierre Remembers McConnell
Joseph J. McConnell, Jr., was one of the most representative students in the class of 1910. The son of a loyal alumnus, he came to Iowa City imbued with the Iowa spirit. Throughout his stay here, he maintained a high standard of scholarship. At the same time he showed a born interest in a wide range of student activities--social, athletic,

WRITES OF INDIA, V. M. C. A.'S.

Letter Received from Hindostan Student at Jow

Y. M. C. A.'S. in India

Indian universities are only experimenting. Practically speaking, the students have an awfully odd time. The British and Foreign Bible Society has supplied a much-needed clarification by establishing Y. M. C. A.'s, in important centers. The function of these Y. M. C. A.'s is to uplift Hindus and Christians alike as members and give them a social life, which they cannot get elsewhere. For example, they have triweekly Y. M. C. A.'s in Calcutta, Bombay, Madras, and Allahabad. They much have a reading room, a library, indoor games, and site readings and music. In the afternoon the students generally gather together and read newspapers and magazines or play indoor. If the evenings they have English conversation class or Bible class conducted by the secretaries. These classes are not compulsory, anyone who wishes can join. Then again on certain days they get special men to speak to them on social and religious. In several cases they go out on excursions outside the city or go to break to them on some subject. The secretaries of these Y. M. C. A.'s bring together energy and dutyfulness that we find than his successors.

PAUL E. PERKINS

The Association in India

The secretary at Madras writes:

"Fundamentally, the Young Men's Christian Association in India is the same as in America or elsewhere. It is the church at work in a united effort for men. The association widens an influence of which the future alone can reveal the true results. A prominent Hindu recently said that the association had more to break caste in India than any other influence."

A Brief Sketch

The Man Arousing in Manila

A moaning or moving. But the most enjoyable evenings are those when they have their social. These are some of the features of the Indian Y. M. C. A.'s. These Y. M. C. A.'s bring together men from the different colleges of the city and, as already remarked, give them an opportunity for moral intercourse, which their common influence fails to give them. For this reason, they are growing in popular and every man should hear him.
