FINE ARTS NOW IN GOOD SHAPE

Professor Cumming Wolf Pleasured With College As It Is at Present

Many of the students of the university have been up on the third floor of the physics building through the college of fine arts. They have been well repaid, although the rooms are by no means completely furnished or arranged. Professor Cumming, head of the art department, was interviewed recently, and very glad to give some of his ambitions and aspirations for the new idea in combining art and college work in such an arrangement that it be a department may be centered upon the completion of a diploma course.

This university is the first in the country, and the fact that art and college education should go hand in hand, and has taken the initiative in offering a course whereby a degree may be earned by systematic work in drawing and painting, in association with liberal arts.

Professor Cumming says: "One of the greatest, or perhaps the greatest conditions of a life has been the art and liberal arts offered as a combined course.

Now that the university has taken the step, and is offering such a course, it is an important thing at the graduate level of the student for the college. The course we are giving with its graduate to go into any branch of art work, with the possible reception of advanced illustration, and hold his place with the graduate of any art school in the country. The training here will fit him for the various branches of commercial; as well as higher art. I wish to hold a high standard—the highest—towards these men, and as the art is at present, we have no student in our history who has graduated in the college of fine arts. I am afraid I can tell how far up grade in art of this class will be able to enter finishing schools of this country and Europe, but my students, for the past twenty years, have been going directly from my school to the best art schools in the world. The course will fit the students for the most advanced work in cartooning; if he decides to take up fine art, he will have the advantage of our standard for cartooning, instead of spending their time and money in cheap, false schools, intended to teach cartooning in three months, with the middle safety support of every student in the university of good foundation for a better education. This is indeed a remarkable record when it is considered that there were over sixty freshmen in the college last year, and the ambition of the entire faculty to earn their living by artistic work would be on record in the university. We believe that every student..."

Contest for Subscriptions is Inaugurated by Management

OPEN TO EVERY STUDENT

$1.00 and Liberal Commission for Persons Getting Most Subscriptions--
Athletic Tickets Offered

The Daily Iowan believes that many of the students who have not subscribed, wish to do so. We believe that every student should do his duty to support their daily paper. With this purpose in view, we will conduct this contest. We want your subscription; we want our paper. We encourage subscriptions. Last year there were only seven who were barred from initiation owing to deficiencies in subscriptions work. This is indeed a remarkable record when it is considered that there were over sixty freshmen in the college last year. If we wish to make this Daily Iowan the best college paper in America, we want you to feel that The Daily Iowan is a paper of the students, by the students, and for the students. We want you to show us your interest in the Daily Iowan by subscribing. If you make it our ambition to join the campus is desired as time permitting. Clever Clothes for College Men

HAVE YOU THAT SPIRIT?

Do you ever engage yourself in the defense of a friend's good name or your society's reputation; and the cover other from words, looks, or gestures that your friends or companions did not appreciate your efforts, and perhaps even "hounded you" behind your back? If you never had this experience, try to imagine it, and endeavor to analyze your feelings, and then remember that the football season is approaching. Remember that within certain limits the whole student body present at the game is as responsible for loss or gain as the team itself. A winning score is the spoil of the student body as long as well as the eleventh in Old Gold. Sound may think that this idea of a roaring college spirit being a material thing is not sound, but it is also sentimentalism, but the wanting of such an opinion discloses a stock of flourishing ignorance. While there are very few who could theoretically declare this as their opinion, it is a fact that it has been a working hypothesis for many years by the look of things shown in passing games. When such and such and Iowa man fully realized his share in the task of winning glory for his university, then there was not a word, not a demonstration of college spirit as was never before known in our midst. So, as to me an ancient, new convictions enable me to have for these meetings, an ardent attitude, attend all the games, and if possible, go with the team to the enemy's camp, and if your team is in a bad mood, save a nickel to buy some heartbroken drops, then yell, yell the ball on the goal line, and then do it again. If you can get on five feet, you want a chance to rest for the rest of the year, nor during the summer, but will have enough to start a big line next fall.

THE CROSS COUNTRY

Interest is athletics must derive from the gradines at this time of the year. The cross country season is opening. This is a field of athletic activity which must be covered. For several years Iowa has had her team in the regular cross races and has held a fair place each time. What is the result to be this year? We are hoping that there will be enough interest to have Iowa represent with a winning team at the annual race which will probably be held in Lafayette, Indiana. To make the team is no little honor. There should be material in the university of Iowa which will put out a team to win. It is our task, this is our opportunity, to take advantage of the opportunity, it is necessary that every man who has the lines must get out and work.

Manager Kellogg will welcome every man with open arms and give him every encouragement possible. Let us all get together and work for the winning athletic team.

INDEPENDENT TICKET WIN

At the junior law election held yesterday afternoon in the law building, the entire independent ticket was endorsed for the college ticket to the university man or woman, but it also gave the members of the organization an opportunity to meet and select likely candidates for membership. Both graduates and present members of the society assisted in the program.

YOUNG men who go away to college or the university, or who are fortunate enough to live where the college or university is, are just the sort of men that we're ready for with our new models in

Hart Schaffner & Marx

Varsity Line

You have no idea—can't have unless you see them—how far in advance of all other "young men's styles" they are. The fashions are lively, snappy, stunning; the fabrics are chosen for young tastes in color or pattern; but one important point—the clothes are all wool; and the tailoring is such that the clothes keep shape.
