"READY MONEY" MAKING HIT IN NEW YORK

New Playing at Maxine Elliott's Theatre in New York—Tonight at Englett's

"Ready Money" the biggest comedy hit of recent years that is now packing them to the doors at Maxine Elliott's theatre in New York and Sir Charles Wyndham's New theatre in London, England, and is likely to remain at both theatres for a year or two, will be the attraction at the Englett Theatre tonight. Hans Robert and Edwards Morgan will be the stars and will be associated with one of the best companies that ever left New York.

"Ready Money" is from the pen of James Montgomery who wrote "The Aviator" and one or two other comedies, and is produced by Mr. H. H. Prasse, who has also produced that remarkable success "Five Presidents" which is creating a sensation in Chicago. "Ready Money" is a comedy of finance and was built for Monday night purposes only. Although there are a number of strong dramatic situations and a charming little love story that gives neat to the whole. The theme is contained in the author's statement "Money gets money. You don't have to spend money to make money, all you have to do is to show it." With this idea James Montgomery has evolved in three acts of wholesome drollery that has just as strong an appeal to the business man, banker and profession- al man as to the matinee girl of theatre habit.

FOOTBALL SEASON OPENS
Now that the football season is about to open it is necessary that every student in the university see behind the luxe and front. If you do not have the time to attend the games, talk football and our greatest friends to your professor, to your classmates, to your friends, to your parents. Let all in this college do their bit toward advertising the university. We have a football team.
We want every one in the university to know that the season is over. We have the material, the year to put on an all western team. To accomplish this the team must have the unprejudiced support of the student body. If it is impossible to be present at the game with the teachers' ticket, buy a ticket. It is in spirit. If you have an extra dollar or so support your university by sending a friend to the game.
THE IOWAN HOME
Did you ever stop to think what a nice thing it would be for your folks at home if you would have us send them The Daily Iowan every day? They are really interested in you. They want to know what is going on in the university which their son or daughter is attending. They are interested in the inter-fraternity debates and fraternal contests. They are interested in the social life. In short they are just as much interested in you as you are.
Think how glad they would be to have The Daily Iowan visit them every day and tell them all about you and your other interesting things. Their son or daughter would not seem so far away from them. It would not be so hard being away from home, then.
What a joyful and happy gathering it would be when, after supper, father would say, "How the Iowan is for Iowa City and read aloud the news from dear Old Iowa.

NEVER before in the history of clothes-making have the well dressed young men of this city been offered better clothes, livelier styles, more new and snappy features than we're now offering in the new Varsity line, created by Hart Schaffner & Marx special designers of young men's clothes.

The models are expressly for young men; the fabrics specially chosen for young men; and many new features have been added which will please the critical young college and high school fellows; and dressy young business men.

Step under an IMPERIAL and get over the trouble of finding the hat that belongs to your particular individuality. Imperials are styled in so many smart shapes that you are bound to be suited—Let us prove it—$3.00.
