TO THE NEW YEAR

With all our New Year's resolutions made, and kept? After two glorious weeks of boosting for the state university of Iowa. With only three weeks between now and the semester examinations, we should settle down for one of the most prosperous years of our lives. To some the past year has brought, happiness, success and pleasure the thoughts of which are as beautiful visions bringing a new inspiration in their lives. To others, sorrow has invaded their lives, success has not waited upon them, pleasure and happiness to them has seemed a crowning sorrow. To still others the past year has been but the same as preceeding ones, a tedious struggle between themselves and the world in general. Let us say with all sincerity that there is hope and help as long as the spirit lasts. Success and happiness in this life is not attained at a single bound. Difficulties once surmounted serve as fortresses for protection against still greater difficulties. It is necessary to look upon this existence with a kindly consideration and prepare for the unforeseen which the creator of all things has wisely hidden from our view.

The student in the great university is beset with many dangers. Socially he is subject to the customs set up. He must stand his ground against prejudice and opposition if he is to succeed. Mentally he stands before the world alone and for himself, against the fittest and ablest of mankind. However, now is the time to provide for the future and in the great university is the place to do it. The opportunity to prepare for your life's work is here offered first of all, but not necessarily the greatest of all. Here is offered the greatest opportunity to prepare yourself for competition with the civilization of the future, which you expect to enter.

The Staff of the Daily Iowan together with the Editor-in-chief and business managers wish you one and all the most prosperous year thus far in your lives.

Wrestling Resumed Yesterday

Wrestling was resumed yesterday and a larger number than was expected turned out. The membership is rapidly increasing. Most divisions are well represented except the heavy weight and the bantam weight. The classes will meet in the future as follows: Monday, Wednesday and Saturday at 4:30 to 5:30; Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Ad Lecture Tonight

Another ad lecture will be given tonight at the Commercial club rooms. The lecture will be illustrated with lantern slides. All who are interested are invited.

Big County Reunions

reunion was held at Carroll and the lantern slide lecture was given at Guttenburg in Clayton county.

Big Banquet Here

At the Iowa Union, December 30 the students and graduates of Iowa City expressed their feeling for their alma mater. The program was exceptionally good and a large number were present.

Harrison county celebrated at Missouri Valley, Woodbine, and Dunlap on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Missouri Valley had an attendance of forty, Dunlap seventy-five and Woodbine topped the list with one hundred.

At Essex, in Page county the lantern slides were shown to a good crowd at a moving picture show. Twenty seven slides were shown and favorably received. Oval Quist is responsible for this novel idea.

Another to Come

The last of the banquets will be held at Cedar Rapids on Wednesday. The banquet will be at the Commercial club rooms. This county has a permanent organization and the officers of this association are in charge.

One Legged Artist

People who patronize the Englert theatre are being entertained by a one legged slack wire artist this week. The gentleman who has one pedal extremity missing has a world of ability and keeps his audience royally entertained. The bill contains several other good numbers among them being two young ladies who captivate and amuse their listeners and show a marked degree of musical ability. Both the young ladies are toe dancers and entertaining the people of Iowa City exceptionally well. They will appear with the other numbers of the program on today and tomorrow.

Professor's Daughter Nearly Drowns

Miss Elizabeth Dorcas, daughter of Professor Dorcas, came near being drowned in the river during vacation. She was skating near Englert's ice house north of the city park, and in some manner fell in. Had it not been for the timely assistance of ice men there, she would not have been able to get out.

More Buildings For Iowa

At a meeting of the state board of education held during vacation, it was decided to add several new buildings to the university as soon as possible. Among the list is a new gymnasium, a wing for the hospital, a library building, a nurses' home, and a chemistry building. It was not decided which would be started first.

Ralph Lawton Coming

Ralph Lawton, at one time connected with the school of music here but at present serving in the same capacity at Drake university, will appear here in an extra recital of the Y. M. C. A. on January 23. He has been abroad two seasons since leaving here, and is fast coming to the front as a pianist of note.

BASKETBALL QUINTET RETURNS FROM TRIP

VICTORY AND FOUR DEFEATS MARKS THE BEGINNING OF SEASON'S WORK

Shows Marked Improvement in Ability to Get Through Loop

from a vacation tour of the state in which five of the fastest basketball teams in Iowa were played. The Hawkeye quintet is again at work on the local armory floor preparing for the game here on Saturday night with Normal college, and a training trip next week of the state universities. One victory and three defeats was the record made by the team on the state floors but they were handicapped by playing the games under Y. M. C. A. rules in cracked-box gymnasiums. The series of games accomplished the beneficial result of putting the men in mid-season physical condition and in developing fast work and team-play. Only a slight hoodoo on basket throwing prevented the five from winning all of the games.

There are no star individual men on the team this season. The entire squad is showing marked improvement over the team which played here before the season with Leander Clark captain. There also is an absence of heavy weight material which the state universities produce. It is hoped, however, that the trip of last week, even though with immediate disastrous results, will develop the men so that later victories may retrieve these losses.

The opening game of the series was played Dec. 30 with the Ottumwa Y. M. C. A., where Slutts of Grinnell fame and a well balanced company of sharp shooters slipped away with a 41 to 17 victory. A tendency on the part of both teams to "hoop-it-up" on roughness prevented much class basketball. In the melee Brothers had several fingers badly sprained and had to be sent home, and Shrader met the team at Des Moines to fill his place. The Iowa line-up, with points tallied: Trelxel, r f 2 field goals; Gardner, l f 3 field baskets; Schultz, c, Leo c, and Beem 1 field basket, c; Berry, l g 5 foul goals; Maiden, r g; Fields, l f; Brothers l g.

On New Year's Eve the Iowa five encountered its second defeat in the Highland Park "gun-barreled" gymnasium. The Hawkeyes were unable to solve the combination of low ceiling, pillars and rope side-lines, and consequently managed to connect but once with a basket from the field. Gardner caged this lone shot. Captain Berry swelled the total to four on a couple of free throws. Highland Park knew the angles in its little gym and led the score with fourteen points. Iowa's line-up with points tallied: Gardner, l f 1 field basket; Trelxel r f; Schulte and Leo, c; Berry l g; Beem and Maiden r g.

After these two defeats the Hawkeye quintette got into real form at Ft. Dodge, where the fast Company C team was beaten 25 to 16. Gardner's splendid floor work and Fields' accurate goaling were the features of the game, but of scarcely less importance was the showing made by Wright, one of the varsity squad who lives in Ft. Dodge and who was first in this game. It was his first appearance on an Iowa team, but he held a fast forward down to 3 baskets and connected with 2 himself, besides getting into offensive play in good style. Iowa's line-up and points tallied: Gardner, l f 2 field goals; Shrader, l f; Fields r f; 5 field goals; Wright, r g 2 field goals; Berry l g, 3 foul goals; Maiden l g Leo c Beem c, one field goal.

Des Moines Y. M. C. A. handed the third defeat to the Hawkeyes on Thursday night in a game where luck played a very prominent part. Iowa excelled in team work and all-around basketball speed, but the men seemed to be unable to make the ball slip through the iron rings, although it repeatedly circled around the edges and dipped down part way in a very tantalizing manner. Captain Berry's "ginger" kept the five going at full gait, and his eye for foul goals played a heavy figure in the score column. Kreigh Carney, an old Grinnell captain, and John Hyland, starred for the association. Iowa's line-up and points tallied: Fields, r f 1 field goal; Gardner and Trelxel, l f; Beem and Leo, c; Berry, l g 1 field goal and 6 foul goals; Maiden, r g.

The final game at Simpson college was lost to a one-man team by the score of 25 to 14. Graves, the Simpson captain, who played at guard, demonstrated his remarkable basket-shooting ability by making seven foals from the field and seven from the foul line, a total of twenty-one points. Although tired from playing four straight nights previously, the Iowa five battled gamely and again outplayed their opponents on the floor but enjoyed their usual inability to put their shots through the basket after working the ball down the field. The Iowa line-up and points tallied: Fields and Shrader, l f; Trelxel, l f; 2 field goal; Beem c, 2 field goals; Leo 1 field goal; Maiden r g; 1 field goal; Berry l g, 4 foul goals.

Summary of points scored by Iowa players. Berry 20, Gardner 11, Fields 12, Trelxel 6, Beem 6, Leo 4, Wright 4, Maiden 2.

A teacher of physics, botany, book-keeping and mathematics. Salary, $60 to $75.

A teacher of athletics and American history or mathematics.

A teacher of mechanical drawing, machine shop practice, forging, etc.

A teacher of English, algebra and history.

A teacher of domestic science.

Two teachers who can handle high school work other than Latin, German and the last three years of English.

Any person interested in any of these positions should call at room 216 liberal arts building.

TWO STATE S. U. I. CLUBS HOLD BIG BOOSTER MEETINGS

Meeting Held at Seattle With Great Success—Minnesota Club to Meet Soon

The S. U. I. club of the state of Washington held a big meeting on December 28 at Seattle. Sixty-nine alumni and former students from that state attended, a large delegation coming from Tacoma.

The banquet was held at the Hotel Washington Annex at 6:30 o'clock. The gathering was strictly informal and was enlivened by Iowa songs and yells. Here a large number of lantern slides were very effectively used.

Six persons responded to the toast "When I was There". Professor T. H. McBride closed the program with the toast "The University". It was in connection that the lantern slide views were used.

At Minneapolis the Minnesota S. U. I. club will hold a big banquet on the 14th of January. There are a large number of university alumni in Minnesota and many of them live in the Twin Cities.

BUCK HANLON HAS FINE NEW PIANO
Instrument Valued at $2,000 Installed at Iowa Theatre This Morning

This morning at the Iowa theatre Buck Hanlon, the proprietor installed a new piano of the Wurtzler make. This is a new venture in the realm of motion picture shows in this city but because of the attractiveness of good music, Mr. Hanlon has provided the public with something out of the ordinary.

The piano is a combination with several other instruments, namely, violin, pipe organ, mandolin, flute and traps. It is so arranged that it may be played automatically by electricity, but Mrs. Hanlon, who is well known as a talented musician, will preside at the keys and furnish the public every afternoon and evening with music of the classiest sort.

Y. M. Mid-Week Meeting
The Y. M. C. A. will begin the new year by holding a meeting Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at Close hall especially for the gospel teams that were sent out during the Christmas vacation. The men who represented the team will speak of their experience.

Philip West Dies
Philip West, B. A., '05, LL. B. '09, died in Regina, Canada, December 23 after an illness of nearly three months in the hospital there. He was stricken with typhoid fever while on a visit there. It is said he would have recovered from the fever, but several other diseases set in, and after three months of suffering, he passed away. Mr. West was well and favorably known here, being one of the best known students who ever attended the university.

Bush Granted Leave
The state board of education at the meeting last week granted Prof S. H. Bush a two month's leave of absence from the university during the coming spring. He will spend the time in France, where he will prepare himself more thoroughly for the work in the French department here.

ARTHUR HARTMAN HERE THURSDAY

Great Violinist Will Appear Here Next Thursday evening at the Auditorium

One of the greatest musical treats of the year is in store for the music lovers of the university and Iowa City Thursday evening when Arthur Hartmann, the distinguished Hungarian violinist appears at the natural science auditorium. Mr. Hartmann who is on his third tour of America, has been pronounced by the leading critics of the United States and Europe as one of the leading violinists of today. W. J. Henderson, of the New York Sun Says: "His tone was notably sweet and ingratiating. Furthermore, the style had the elegance, finish and repose needed for a performance of the Saint Saens concerto. The reading which Mr. Hartmann presented had coherence in plan and musicianly appreciation of both the content and the limits of the work."

William Reddick, who will accompany Mr. Hartmann, was born in Kentucky, and has had his entire musical training in America. Although a young man he has already written a number of piano pieces and songs which have met with much favor both with artists and the public. Within the past year, Mr. Reddick has appeared with such artists as Riccardo Martin, Mme. Maud Bowell and David Bishpan always winning the highest praise.

The seat sale will begin tomorrow morning at Wienekes.

Choral Society Meets Tonight

The Choral Society will meet tonight at 7:30 in the liberal arts assembly hall. It is earnestly desired that every member be present as there is still a great deal of work to be done on the opera which will be given by the society the last of this month.
