FIFTY-ONE MEN PASS STATE BAR EXAMS

EVERY CANDIDATE OF LAW SCHOOL SUCCESSFUL—OUTSIDERS PASS

Attorney-General Cosson Declares Class to be Exceptionally Strong One—Men are Complimented—Urged to Joint State Bar Ass'n.

All of the fifty-one candidates for the state bar were successful in the examinations which closed today. Of this number 48 were seniors in the college of law and three were outsiders. Among the latter was E. G. Dunn, democratic candidate for governor in the last election, who was formerly a student in the law school here. The other two were Lloyd K. Casterline of Tipton and Chauncey W. Pitts, a court reporter of Alton.

In announcing the results, Attorney-General George Cosson declared that this class was an unusually strong one. He complimented the men on successfully getting through and urged them to join the State Bar association.

Following are the successful candidates:

Students of the law college: George Allen of Iowa City; Edwin A. Baldwin, of Iowa City; W. J. Barngrover, of Des Moines; Maurice J. Breen, of Fort Dodge; Earl S. Browning, of Iowa City; Wm. A. Byers of Iowa City; R. F. Clough of Iowa City; Wayne G. Cook, of Davenport; Chester A. Corey, of Iowa City; Sam H. Erwin, of Wapello; Paul Ferguson, of Shenandoah; Paul B. Galer, of Mount Pleasant; Arthur C. Gordon, of Iowa City; Homer W. Green, of Cherokee; Earl A. Hoffman, of Denison; Max M. Howell, of Centerville; Chas. E. Hughes, of Ruthven; R. S. Jackson, of Muscatine; Vernon I. Johnson, of Thurman; Walter Koerner, of Dubuque; Thomas Levitt, of Des Moines; Donald C. Lutz, of Mapleton; James R. McVicker, of Sigourney; Thomas W. McClelland, of Davenport; Roch S. Mentzer, of Knoxville; Richard F. Mitchell, of Ft. Dodge; Neal M. Monroe, of Iowa City; George F. Morrison, of Washington; James P. Murphy, of Dike; Guss A. North, of Fall River, Kan.; Willis J. O'Brien, of Des Moines; Clarence M. Parker, of Cedar Falls; Clifford Powell, of Red Oak; Hiram T. Price, of Marengo; James E. Reaney, of Columbus Jet.; Guy C. Richardson, of Jefferson; Charles E. Richman, of Cedar Rapids; Willard Russell, of Tama; Vernon R. Seeburger, of Des Moines; Frederick B. S. Shaffer of New Hampton; Ernest B. Stillman, of Emmetsburg; Harry B. Turnipseed, of Wellman; Jacob Van der Zee, of Iowa City; Francis M. Varge of Leon, Cable G. Von Maur, of Davenport; Clement F. Wade, of

INTERCOLLEGIATE QUESTION IS OUT

Resolved That Immigration Should be Further Restricted by a Literacy Test

Resolved, That Immigration Should be Further Restricted by a Literacy Test. This is the proposition that will be debated in the Central Debating Circuit next December, Minnesota having finally cast the vote which decided the tie between Nebraska, Iowa and herself.

None of the teams have been selected, except Iowa's, as the other universities waited for the question to be decided upon before holding tryouts. Further, the fact that Professor Ketcham, Illinois' debating coach, has resigned to take a position in Ohio State University, puts one of Iowa's opponents in a badly crippled condition for next year.

As far as is known, all of the men who made the team at Iowa will be in the university next fall, and Iowa's chances of victory will be better than ever before, now that the public speaking department has been running smoothly for the first year under its new head, Professor G. N. Merry.

DR. ALBERT KUNTZ TO ### DO GOVERNMENT WORK

Has Been Reappointed to Carry On Research Work in Beaufort First Station

Dr. Albert Kuntz, instructor in animal biology, has been reappointed by the U. S. government to carry on research work in the fish station at Beaufort, N. C.

He left last Thursday night for the Atlantic coast to begin his experiments which will occupy the larger part of the summer.

Dr. Kuntz spent last summer there investigating the habits of the food fishes of the Atlantic, and his reappointment comes as a recognition of his efficient work of last year. Only zoologists of recognized ability are chosen by the government to carry on the economic experiments at this station, and his selection to fill this post reflects considerable credit on the faculty of the department of zoology.

Dr. Kuntz has published many articles concerning the results of his experiments in the animal world; especially noteworthy is a series showing the evolution and development of the systematic nervous system in mammals, birds, certain fishes, turtles, vertebrates, and amphibia.

PHI BETA KAPPA HOLDS ITS ANNUAL ELECTION

Professor H. C. Dorcas Is Chosen to Head Fraternity for Coming Year

At the annual meeting of the Alpha chapter in Iowa of the Phi Beta Kappa society held Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for next year:

President—Professor H. C. Dorcas.

Vice-president—Professor E. H. Lauer.

Secretary-treasurer—Professor R. M. Stewart.

DELTA SIGMA RHO

Delta Sigma Rho, the honorary debating fraternity, met last night to elect officers for the ensuing year. George G. Glick of Muscatine, was elected president, and Clarence B. Isaac of Red Oak, was chosen secretary-treasurer.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

The Alpha Chi Omega sorority enjoyed its annual Founder's Day luncheon at the chapter house Saturday at one o'clock.

DR. STONER TO AMES

Iowa sends an entomologist to Ames this summer. Mr. Dayton Stoner leaves next week to take the post of assistant in the insectary there, and will spend two months in breeding experiments with injurious and beneficial insects. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Stoner. Mr. Stoner has already spent one season at Ames in similar investigations, chiefly upon the pests of the apple and potato, and the new appointment indicates the success attending his labors. He will resume his position here in the fall.

GOVERNOR CLARK REVIEWS CADETS

Presents Commissions to Student Soldierly in Person—Rifle Team Receives "I's"

A good sized crowd despite the threatening weather viewed the Governor's Day ceremonies on Iowa field Friday. Governor Clark was present in person and after the reviewing the student soldiery presented the commissions from the State of Iowa to the various officers. After the presentation of commissions President Bowman for the university presented the prizes and awards won in the competitive drills of two weeks ago, and also the "I's" won by the members of the rifle team, during the past year. After the awards were made, the regiment again passed in review before the governor and the year's work in the department of military science was ended.

BALDWIN IN MUNICIPAL WORK

Frank Baldwin has been appointed to a position in the office of James R. Hanna at Des Moines according to word received here this week. He assumed his new duties there yesterday. The position concerns municipal and publicity work for the city of Des Moines and bears the title of assistant secretary to the mayor. The work will permit Baldwin to continue his law work at Drake university from which institution he contemplates taking his law degree.

TO HOLD EXHIBITION

An exhibition of the work of the first and second year students in Graphic and Plastic Arts will be held in the galleries of the fine arts college, third floor new physics building, from Saturday, June 7th, all through commencement week. All interested are invited.

Besides the students work, there will be several Indian paintings by Phillips, one of the greatest painters of Indian life in America, and a number of paintings by Professors Cumming and Culbertson, of the Art department. Admission free.

PAY MRS. WICKHAM

The committee in charge of securing the charter for the admission of Iowa university to the Associated Collegiate Alumnae wishes to report that the necessary fifty names have been secured and would request all members to send the $1.00 dues to Mrs. H. F. Wickham before Tuesday night. Mrs. Wickham will be at the ladies' parlor in the liberal arts building Tuesday morning from 9:30 to 12.

Professor Glenn Newton Merry will begin his summer's engagements as platform manager for the Red-path Chautauqua System on June 26th.

CAST OF SENIOR PLAY UNUSUALLY TALENTED

"THE RIVALS" EXPECTED TO MAKE BIG HIT TOMORROW NIGHT

New Costumes and Special Scenery Have Been Secured—Coach Is Well Pleased—Play One of Sheridan's Best Comedies.

With an all-star cast, new costumes, and an abundant supply of special scenery, the senior play, which is to be staged at the Englert tomorrow night, promises to be one of the best local talent plays ever seen in Iowa City. Coach Lauer is now putting the finishing touches to the piece, and he has announced that the final rehearsals have been highly gratifying to himself as well as the members of the cast. This year's play, "The Rivals," presents infinite possibilities for dramatic interpretation, and with an unusually strong cast it is expected to set a new standard for such productions at the university.

A glance at the cast of characters reveals the fact that they have all had wide experience in dramatic productions. Roscoe Patch is doing some fine work as Bob Acres. Louis McRaith will appear in the leading role of Captain Absolute, and Miss Lucile Emerson will play opposite him as Lydia Languish. Miss Sadie Parrott is doing full justice, in the rehearsals, to the difficult part of Mrs. Malaprop. John Arthur and Frank Seydel will appear respectively, as Sir Lucius O'Trigger, the clever Irish comedian, and Sir Anthony Absolute, the head-strong father of Captain Absolute.

"The Rivals" is conceded to be on a Sherridan's best plays; it ranks as a close second to his great masterpiece, "The School for Scandal." In "The Rivals," Sheridan has given the world of drama the immortal character of Mrs. Malaprop, whose homely philosophy and clever intrigue give her a strong hold upon all audiences. Lydia Languish, the romantic heroine of the play, is the niece of Mrs. Malaprop. Bob Acres, Sir Lucius O'Trigger, and Captain Absolute are all suitors for the hand of the fair Lydia, whose actions and tastes are supposed to be guided by her eccentric aunt. Lydia, however, has ideas of her own and has a tendency to lean toward all that is fanciful and mysterious in life. So far as Lydia is concerned, we first find the hero, Captain Absolute, masquerading under the name of Beverley—for he believes that he is that Lydia is the very bride Sir Anthony has picked out for him, he still maintains the character of Beverley, as he believes that it will appeal to Lydia's sense of the romantic. The plot abounds with amusing situations

VOCATIONS OPEN TO WOMEN

In the college of liberal arts the way is open to the soundest learning which the age can give in science, philosophy, and literature. Success is not reached by "having heard." Here, as elsewhere in the university, the student deals with truth under the guidance of masterminds.

No outline can be given here of all courses offered in liberal arts. Certain courses lead to magazine writing. A considerable group of women graduates of the university are self-supporting in their field. Accounting, physical education, economic research, bacteriological work, museum work, industrial chemistry, play-ground work, psychology, insurance, banking, transacting, charity organizations, Y. W. C. A. work, and municipal research are some of the specific vocations in which women may train themselves in this college as a means of self-support.

Through the school of education a large number of women prepare for positions as teachers in high schools and colleges. They prepare also for positions as high school principals and school superintendents.

For advanced work in any field the student is referred to the graduate college. The university stands among the state universities of the United States.

In the college of fine arts elementary and advanced courses are offered in instrumental music on the piano and violin, orchestra music, vocal music, choral society work, concert and church choir singing and public school music. Portrait painting, landscape painting, house decorating, and design here also present attractive vocations.

In addition to the vocations named must be included the professional courses open to women at the university. About one hundred women are now in the nurses's training schools. Graduates of these schools are in constant demand. Other women are studying dentistry, medicine and pharmacy. Law and engineering to a less extent attract women.

A fuller statement of the interests of women in the university is given in an illustrated bulletin on "The University and Its Life", which will be sent upon application.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The second graduating recital of the university school of music was successfully held last Friday evening. The school of music is rapidly pushing to the front and in a very few years will take a foremost place in the musical circles of the country. Professor Schoettle has indeed well earned his success through his tireless efforts in building up the school during the past two years.

SUMMER SESSION SCHOOL OF MUSIC

To Be Held During the Six Weeks Beginning June 16—Professor Schoettle Director

The annual summer session of the university school of music will be held during the six weeks beginning June 16, 1913. This period will coincide with the dates of the summer session of the other departments of the university, and a favorable opportunity to do some work in music is therefore offered to those who are doing work in the university.

The summer session in general has become an important educational institution and the general trend with the standard institution of learning has been to make it in some ways even more comprehensive than the regular year's work, since the patrons of such sessions, from the great diversity of their own study, demand an exceptional curriculum. In conformity with this the university school of music is offering a summer school schedule to meet the needs of several classes of students:

First, those who wish to continue their regular study during the summer in order to complete their course at an earlier date.

Second, professional musicians who wish to do special study during the summer months in order to fit themselves for better work in their own duties.

Third, students who during the regular year can find time to do any work in music and who wish to make a beginning.

Students Praised For Work Accomplished in Second Graduating Recital

The second graduating recital of the university school of music took place last Friday night at the auditorium. A small but very appreciative audience was present. Miss Elizabeth Mae McElroy of Milford, Iowa, was the graduate and the main share of the program fell to her lot. She played the entire Sontata of Greiga polonaise by Chopin, Liszt's Liebestraum, and Liszt's arrangement of the March and Chorus from Wagner's opera, "Tannhauser". This is a formidable list and sufficient to tax the powers of a great artist. Miss McElroy acquitted herself of her task most admirably, showing herself the possessor of a technique ample to cope with the difficulties presented by the numbers and displaying a touch capable of all dynamics from piano to the strongest fortissimo. Particular praise is due her for her fine interpretations and the individuality of her conception of the music. Prof. Gustav Schoettle, who has been her teacher for the past two years is indeed to be congratulated on the success achieved by his pupil, and clearly demonstrated the fact that the graduates of the school of music of the university of Iowa can successfully cope with the graduates of other institutions of higher learning. Miss McElroy was most admirably assisted by Miss Madge Eastman who played two charming violin solos, and Miss Claire Schaible, who sang two numbers with a flexible and well developed soprano voice. The program was most fittingly concluded with a number in which all the three young artists participated. The debutante of the occasion was the recipient of many floral offerings and was called out repeatedly to acknowledge her thanks to the appreciative audience.

MISS MARY KIFER HAS TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

Captures Silver Loving Cup From Large Number of Fast Players

Miss Mary Kifer easily won the women's tennis championship of the university in the finals played last Friday on the university courts. With this championship comes the silver loving cup offered by the women's athletic association.

All during the past week the tournament was held, the present champion winning from a large number of fast players. Her nearest competitor was Miss Cole, from whom she won the final sets, playing the best two out of three.

The preliminary games:
 Miss Cole winning from Miss Prentiss 6-1, 6-1; Miss Sexsmith winning from Miss Koch, 6-3, 6-3; Miss Steyh winning from Miss Frampton, 6-3, 6-3; Miss Kifer winning from Miss McCall 6-2, 6-4; Miss Taft winning from Miss Pederson, 6-3, 8-10; Miss Deitel winning from Miss Loos, 6-2, 6-2; Miss Cole winning from Miss Deitel, 6-4, 7-5; Miss Frampton winning from Miss Koch, 6-4, 3-6, 7-5; Miss Kifer winning from Miss Taft, 6-3 4-6, 6-2.

Semi-finals:
 Miss Cole winning from Miss Frampton 6-4, 6-0.

Finals:
 Miss Kifer winning from Miss Cole, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.
