Band Goes To Minneapolis.

The selling of Tags by Caufield's, Nearly Five Hundred Dollars for Tag

The band left last night for Minneapolis.

The selling of tags resulted in procuring something over five hundred and fifty dollars. Fifty dollars were added to this at the mass meeting Thursday night small sums from every source on Friday morning boosted the total amount on hand to more than five hundred and fifty dollars.

The railroad fare alone for the forty-four members of the band is approximated at one hundred and fifty dollars.

The members will be required to pay their own board and miscellaneous expenses, but they are extremely grateful for such a liberal response on the part of the students.

The men were arrayed in their uniforms. They marched in approved military style between the cornfarms and Rock Island streets in Cedar Rapids last night.

RESCUE ME SOCCER PLAYERS

Schroeder Has Not Enough for Two Teams.

More men are needed for the soccer football team. About fifteen players were working out last night every evening at 4:30, but there should be at least twenty-five men in so few hours there is no chance for competition. Director S. O. Schroeder is anxious to start two teams at this time and the work this fall season promises to be very interesting.

Director N. A. Kellogg, while attending today's football game, will attempt to schedule a soccer football contest, with Minnesota. Minnesota has written inviting about a date and the game with the University is expected presently.

The game will continue to be played here this year.

The team practices every night except Saturday in Iowa City. Anyone wishing to try out on the squad should report to Director Schroeder at his office at once.

CATHOLIC STUDENTS TO MEET

Catholic students will meet at 8 tonight at the University student center.

At last the site of the "3140" campaign has been revealed. Professor H. G. Davies yesterday announced the official registration is 3,114 which is a gain of 875 over the total registration of nearly 23,000 which is the number reported in the official campaign.

The number of nearly 875 per cent in advance is deeply gratifying to many authorities because adverse economic conditions throughout the state the campaign had indicated possible\n time but a rather small one at all.

The figures do not include duplicate names from summer school or names registered in the superintendent's school or in any other institutions whose work is not a part of the campaign.

The figures are that of the actual total of regular students.

THE BEST THING

What would you choose as the best thing in college life?

The answer varies, of course, according to the student, but something asaoy as this week's T. W. T. C. A. meeting has possibilities for further discussion.

What does average student feel is the biggest thing he is getting? Is he satisfied?

The Daily Iowan does not believe that he is. The average student would vary in his answer. If the student were satisfied, would he be here?

The Daily Iowan believes that the bigger thing in college is the message that the students send out to the world. Is the student

WHAT'S BIGGEST IN COLLEGE?

Girls at Y. W. C. A. Deline Questions in Variety of Opinions

"What would you choose as the best thing in college life?"

That is the question with fifty girls attending the Y. W. C. A. meeting Wednesday night discussed. Ethel Slerry, Gwendolyn McCall, Edna O'Hara, and Ruth Magowan were the leaders. Ethel Slerry asked five other supernumerates what they considered the biggest thing in college life. "Vocations" said one. "Pursuing art" said a second; "Church, Y. W. C. A., and organization life," was the reply of a third; "The broadening influence of the scholars is the biggest thing," said the fourth; "Friendships" was the fifth girl's decision. Miss Slerry said that friendship was the biggest and included all the others.

"Last year I would have said, too, that friendships were the biggest things in one's college life," said Gwendolyn McCall, who spoke from the standpoint of a junior. "But this year, my choice has changed. I believe that real study is the biggest thing."

To see what you have like Moses of old who said just a dried up red to deliver three million people from the bondage of Pharaoh, was one of O'Hara's suggestion for a girl's choice. "To have a dynamic re¬lating emotion is the taste for the most successful living," she said.

Not one biggest, but three biggest things I would choose," said "Magowan, who represented the alumnas' point of view. "These three are: To study broadly and conscientiously, to learn to know at least one girl's form and even her whole life; to pray and have the biggest conception of God that one mind is capable of." Bertha Slerry and fifty others were in attendance.
