Girls Break Rule—Suffer Penalty
Apparent Apologies After Missincoming.

Can we make no "Dance" for the University Forever?

At least twenty-one university girls had their party privileges taken from them for one month from February 3 in retiring from college. These girls were the outcome of the tendency of the boy dividing fair ladies into two classes. The first class consisted of the high flying ladies fighting for the better of the two choices, while the second class consisted of the "dancing" or "atmospheres" of any party or dance for one month which will include the date of the January party.

The office of the dean of women declared forever all information to the fact that the rules have been broken and with a penalty enforced. A resumé of the sentences reported the fact that five students were expelled, four students were suspended, and five were put on the black list.

William Fox Film Production

THEDA BARA'S LIFE TRIUMPH

SUPREME BEYOND DISPUTE, SUPERBLY SOLITARY IN CONCEDED PRE-EMINENCE, Imitation Predecessors and Futility.

The theme, the gat, the wonder of a dazzling, moving-picture world. Everywhere received with spontaneous acclamation and rapturous applause.

GORGEOUSLY GIANTIC GEM

A masterpiece of photoplay accomplishment. The product of time, thought, lavish expenditure and accumulated experience heretofore never unimpered and concentrated.

Directly and Contrived by Raoul A. Walsh

This is Why Wm. Fox's Carmen is Without Example or Parallel

PRODUCER—WILLIAM FOX, a name nationally synonymous of the revolutionary and innovatory in the moving picture industry. A trade mark that guarantees quality. Its stamp on a film means the best that the most experienced and expensive minds of literature, dramatic art and the director's profession can produce.

STAR—THEDA BARA, "Hades' hand-maiden", in the role of Carmen, the haughty and intolerant gypsy flirt. Former leading woman of the noted Theatre Antoine, Paris. Stands supremely alone and unexcelled as "The Vampire Woman" of the screen. Literally a rage from coast to coast.

THEDA BARA, Love Child of the Devil

Lured to America by William Fox from the Theatre Antoine de Paris, the French capital's playhouse of thrills. Leaped into instantaneous fame in this country by her blood-chilling rendition of The Vampire Woman in the William Fox production of "A Fool There Was", by Porter Emerson Beaman. Her subsequent career under the William Fox standard a succession of unqualified triumphs. Now literally the rage from coast to coast, the entire country at her feet.

Is a screen house-wrecker. In her wake only blasted lives and stunted careers.

Say her admirers are less cold-hearted and calculating than blase, despite that the popular idea of a wicked woman is a dark and midnight beauty.

Her eyes possess the velvet brilliance which is usually associated with Cleopatra, one of the earliest Vampires of history.

Is tall and willowy, moves with the sinuous grace and audacious beauty of a Tyrolean, full-petalled rose.

"Has the most beautifully wicked face in the world."—Cleveland Press.

"The greatest delineator of evil types on the stage or screen today, but in real life a sweet, wholesome woman who defeats the abnormal."—Chicago Herald.

"Never in all my experience have I passed into a face portraying such wickedness and evil—with characteristics of The Vampire and The Serenovas."—Emily L. Vangill, New York Society Phrenologist and Physiocognomist.

Speaks most of her spare time in active work for the French Red Cross Society.

If You Want to Teach

BUT THAT, you can secure a position through the Midland Schools Teach- ing Agency, of Des Moines, Iowa. It places women, but I do not know whether any other agency and in terms are the most liberal offered. It covers the entire territory west of the Mississippi river, except California, Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas.

For one dollar you receive an employment, a year's subscription to the Midland Schools and Iowa high school teachers' directory, showing the names of all Iowa high school teachers with school budgets and salaries centered. Any one of these is well worth the price.

Arrangements have been made with Mr. Hinck, publisher of the Daily Iowan, by which you can some blanks and enroll directly through him. This will save the time and trouble and expense.

Send his announcement in this issue or write directly to C. E. Seargeant, 201 Moines, Iowa.

Y.M.C.A. PLANS FOR GENEVA CONFERENCE

HUNDRED UNIVERSITIES REPRESENTED LAST YEAR

Many prominent men will lead the Geneva Conference Meetings Next June

With the opening of the second semester the Y. M. C. A. is beginning to lay plans for sending by annual delegation to the Lake Geneva conference, which will convene in the twenty-sixth annual session June 14.

The committee appointed by the general to take charge of the work consists of Ralph A. Pfitz, chairman, Jay Clover and Neil Adamsen.

Mr. Pfitz attended the convention last year and is an enthusiastic booster to Y. M. C. A. work.

The assignment for the next year will be a personal one, the committee advertising the benefits to be derived and seeking to aid all who will possibly be able to attend. Later in latter clinics illustrating the picturesque scenery of the lake will be made and a lecture given concerning the advantages to be derived from attendance at a conference.

Last year the university Y. M. C. A. sent twenty-three delegates. The total attendees at the conference was 700, coming from 125 universities and colleges of the middle west. Three programs for the coming session will include lectures and talks by each man as John R. Hays, Bishop P. McMillan, Owen Davis, president of the Chicago theological seminary, and Raymond Borden. The last case it will be remembered, were the principal leaders in the religious and social action conducted under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and T. W. C. A. last season.

Aside from the religious influence of the conference, Lake Geneva and vicinity offers one of the most delightful summer resorts in the United States. The lake itself, a healthy spot of Wisconsin, is over nine miles long and is surrounded, by magnificent scenery of forests and cliffs.

The opening sessions of the conference are usually taken up with organized and class meetings. In the afternoons, boating, running, sailing, skating, and athletic sports are the order of the day. The representatives from the different states compete in baseball, track and events. Last year the formal track meet of the conference was participated in by over forty men.

Purposes and views of the last convention have been passed on up to the incoming president of the Y. M. C. A. in
