The fable of the Young Man who would not Dress Up

Once upon a time there was a Young Man who was busy Gathering, Sorting and Pigpenholing Noble Thoughts, that he didn't have time to bother with Trivial Things like Clothes—any Old Vintage of '76 Suit was all right for him, and besides, didn't some Patriarch say, that Clothes don't make a Man—back there in the Age when a Sheet was Dress Up.

One day this Boy Encyclopaedia decided to take his Twin-Six Intellect to some Captain of Industry, thereby giving Big Business its first Real Chance.

He tried to get an Audience with all the Big Guns in the Seven Figures. The Chiefs lamped him for a Ne'er-Do-Well looking for a Hand-out, and ordered the office boys to give him the Gate.

The Young Man couldn't get near enough to a Higher Up to explain that he had been so busy filling his Mind that he didn't have Time to decently cover his body.

The Moral of this Fable is:—Dress up; Clothes make all of a Man except his Hands and Face during Business Hours.

We've told you this little fable to get your mind on new clothes and the fact that the Fall "Dress Up" begins to-morrow. What do you need—a suit, overcoat or both?

Nevertheless, however, when the mothers were asked whether they believed that the university expects all students to conduct themselves as ladies and gentlemen in the sense of good society, it is made clear that many are not aware what is meant by good manners, let alone have the idea that they are the so-called sense of good society. It is made clear that many are not aware that they are the so-called sense of good society. It is made clear that many are not aware that they are the so-called sense of good society.
