THE MATTER WITH JONES

"What's the matter with Jones?"

"As a young fellow,—remember,—he was some dresser. Guy didn't describe at all. I know, for I roomed with him at college, and he was a paragon that helped to swing him over more or less notable places.

"Why, Jim's set the pace in campus fashion! His sartorial sense is of such a degree that he had over-dressed at his first appearance, but I never met him—morning, noon, or night,—when he failed to present himself in the peak of condition. Jones was the cleaner’s most loyal patron. But look at him now—poor Jones! I beam him to a high and the best weekday—know why? I won in spite of myself—late on the job, high quotations; late delivery. Jones had the edge on charge of the contribution's; he 'put up' to the school of condition."

"What is the matter with Jones? What is the matter with Smith and Brown and Black, who disregard the importance of 'Faculty members and students alike have been

S. U. B. BAND CONCERT

Postponed to Wed., Dec. 6

First Concert of the Series

The new plan of a season of concerts opens on the above date. It is the plan of the band, to give the University and City a real treat in music this season. Last year the first concert was well attended but owing to the fact that there was an unusual amount of entertainment on for the same evening they were asked to repeat the same concert which they did some time later. This year they will give a series of concerts, four in number, and they are offering season tickets at an unusually low price of $3.00 each. Price of admission at the door 50c. Buy season tickets and save a dollar. (On sale at Wiebes', or buy them from any band man.)
