THE CAPTAINS OF MANY FORMER TEAMS ATTEND THE GAME

Director of Athletics N. A. Kelling has invited all of the twenty-five-year Iowa football captains to attend the game today. Replies have already been received from 25 of the former captains. Among them are the following:

Davison, Lyman, and Gould, freshmnen players, Ciley, Burton, Gillis, Franklin, Tanks and Cobler, and two co-coaches of the present team, Hedges, and a former Iowa player.

Although it will not be known until Saturday what will be the playing line-ups, it will be possible to predict that most of the former captains will be playing line or at least in the reserve line.

The game will be played on the afternoon of Saturday, said that he would try the first practice Tuesday.

Iowa has a wealth of basket ball material this year, according to basketball Coach Marcus A. Kent, and he expects the university squad to be made up of many veterans, indications that they will be a speedy and clever aggregation, which will be a force to be reckoned with, and one that will not be removed easily.

The Iowa team will be selected by the aid and assistance of the alumni of the university basketball team.

The captains of the many former teams will meet on the basketball court at the university this afternoon, and it is expected that they will be able to predict the playing line-up of the Iowa team, and so the game will be played on the afternoon of Saturday, said that he would try the first practice Tuesday.

Regular practice for the varsity team will be held at the basketball court at the university this afternoon, and it is expected that they will be able to predict the playing line-up of the Iowa team, and so the game will be played on the afternoon of Saturday, said that he would try the first practice Tuesday.

"THE PILLORY"

Is a powerful drama of intolerance in five reels of interest-compelling action.
It has a type we all know—the severe, unforgiving "Christian" woman, who elects herself a rigid deputy of God, depending upon quotations from the Bible to strengthen on the dictates of her narrow judgment.
How, through her harshness, a mother, fighting for justice at the hands of society for her child, is placed upon a Social Pillory more terrible than the one of old, is told in a thrilling succession of scenes.
