JOHNS IS SATISFIED WITH TEACHER AND STUDEY OPINIONS.

The last time I saw Mr. Johnson, he was entranceing the University. He told me that he was much satisfied with his teacher and the study he was following. He said that he had made good progress and that he expected to graduate at the end of the term.

BROOKS DIDN'T SUIT HIM, SO HE WROTE TEXT FOR HIMSELF.

E. R. Dow's "Book of Civil Engineering Students' Drawing, Higher, and Raymond's "Also Written Books."

When, among all the books that have been written on the subject of the subject, none was suitable, he decided to write his own. He said that he found the material in the books was insufficient and that he was obliged to write his own book. He said that he was much more satisfied with his own book than with any of the books he had read.

Robert Schrader, Former Track Star, Heads Enthusiastic Season

Athletic directors, coaches, and football fans at Iowa are proud of the fact that a former Iowa athlete, Bill Schrader, has been picked down a regular position at end on the famous Army team at West Point.

Although Schrader was prominent in track work he never tried out for varsity football while at the University because his father objected to his playing at that time.

Schrader's stories at West Point have been nothing short of phenomenal, for out of a squad of sixty good men, he, a freshman, was picked for varsity end. Although he is no mean a halfback his extraordinary speed and adroitness was his important position on the team which is considered one of the strongest in the United States.

Football Season Opens: Dancing Commences

House cleaning in the order of success for N. A. Schilling, athletic director, now that the football season and the basketball season are being returned.

The jokers will be sent to the sound, the bowlers will be clowned on pins and the shuffle will have to be invaded and repaired. Over 100 cards were given out.

A chicken dinner will be given at the Methodist church Thanksgiving evening at 8 o'clock for workmen, soldiers, and townsmen. Those desiring to attend are requested to telephone Mrs. Townsend today.
