LEGIslATURE TO SETTLE DOWN TO WORK THIS WEEK

Anti-Liquor Program and Road Fight to Come Up This Week—Road Construction Receives a Windfall From Issue at Present.

(Special To the Daily Iowan)

Des Moines, Jan. 29.—The present week will afford the beginning of real legislative work of the Thirty-ninth legislature. Up to this time the work has been chiefly of a preliminary nature; that of organizing and getting the lesser really for presentation, as well as one of familiarizing the new members with their duties. This latter angle is of at least importance in the house that is in the senate, the lower branch assimilating an average of fifty per cent of new blood with every new legislature.

Road Issue Leaps Out

Of the eight important issues which face the legislature for the session, the one which presents the most attractive feature in the legislative program for the session is the completion of the anti-liquor program. The traditional opening of the road fight, the concrete form of which is prepared and is now in the stage of testing itself, is not the only issue which presents itself. Other projects or programs, big and little, which are present in this stage of the road fight in city, county, and state, will be discussed.

The constitutional amendment is ready for final legislative action this week, and will be taken up by the house tomorrow morning for passage. This would be one out of the way last week but for the fact that Governor Hardin had the program ready and stated that the only application of the item was in the form of a proposal.

Low Dry Opposition

Another one which will be discussed by the Whimsey house this bill Tuesday morning in the senate. The opposition [Continued on Page Three]

UNIQUE PARTY PLANNED

Place for one of the most interesting parties of the season is being completed by the Sigma Gamma chapter which will hold its formal to Company A ball next Friday evening. It is said that Art Thurney, the king of danc- ing, will have a very unique plan efficient up on his sleeve but will not reveal it to any one. Several out- standing guests are expected to attend the party.

WHAT THE LITERARY SOCIETIES ARE DOING

The following officers have been elected to their respective offices for the coming year:

President: Vincent M. McCartney, vice-president, William Plumer; corresponding secretary, Dorothy Cox; recording secretary, Luella Wilson; sergeant-at-arms, Edith Browning.

Others elected for one year as president are President, Margaret Braddock; secretary, Vera Knoll; corresponding secretary, Viola Mangurian; treasurer, Margaret Pickering; and adjutant, Elizabeth Cottrell.

Ottumwa to have a Short Course

The organizational division of the university has just completed the program for the Ottumwa short course which is to be given Feb. 12. This is an important tool for the farmers and will be given to farmers from a wide radius of the territory.

Tudor's of Corydon, a fresh- man in the Liberal arts, will be lost in the Christmas holiday and will not take up his work in the University until next week.

Men Already Named—Mundell and Alexander Look Good in Main Training—Start for Ames.

Three of the members of the varsity wrestling team have been picked as the result of the two-weeks' training which was held last week. The remaining four will be picked this week, and the men will be given good workouts in preparing to do their best this season.

Hall is Pick

The varsity team as now organized is composed of the following men: Capt. Perrott, Inberlight, Jacob- sen, Shimek, Kellogg, Heath, Beal, Barber, and Pirsson will wrestle for the light-weight class as soon as possible. It has been impossible to decide this point before as the two-weeks' training was held last week. Nothing further can be said about this point until the team is picked by Capt. Perrott in his training for the season.

Wrestling Is Popular

A well, blossoming non-fraternal wrestling team was named this week that includes the assistant professor of chemistry and another one of the faculty. The men that have been named are of such a quantity and with such force. Indeed is the popular force of the Iowa wrestling team, and it is expected that the members of the team will be of the best medical attention, died at 1:15 p.m.

KELLOGG COLLECTS ATHLETIC RECORDS

OLD FILES OF NEWSPAPER YIELD RECORDS OF PROWESS OF OLD IOWA TEAMS

Director of Athletics N. A. Kellogg has the material for histories of hundreds of men who have participated in athletics at Iowa.

When the late Prof. A. G. Smith was chairman of the athletic board in 1865, he began keeping records of all branches of sport indulged in by his men, and, seeing the value of this, he began making up records of names played in past years. With the aid of old files he ran the record book as far back as 1859 for football and 1875 for basketball and track.

When Mr. Kellogg became manager of athletics the records were turned over to him. This year he has been digging deeper into old newspaper files and has found records for football as far back as 1859 and for basketball back to 1894.

Many interesting things have been discovered in the files. Names were played and the number of men on a team. The rules have undergone changes, as has also the number of games played on three days. In 1882 football was played on Saturday, Saturday, and Sunday, and three games constituted a game. There was no time limit, and making a touchdown counted nothing, but gave the team making it a chance to try for a good kick. The side making three goals won the game no matter whether it took half an hour or all afternoon.

38 PICTURES HERE FOR ART EXHIBIT

JOSEPH GADBURY EMPLOYED TO HANG THEM AND ARRANGE LIGHTING

The thirty-eight pictures to be shown at the art exhibit beginning next Monday evening in the Commercial-club room have arrived and will be hung before the end of this week. Unrolling of the sixteen boxes, the hang ing of the pictures, and arrangements for the lighting will be under the supervision of Joseph Gadbury who was graduated from the University in 1912.

The pictures come here from Youngstown, Ohio, and are sent directly from the Art Institute in Chicago. When the exhibition of American art closed at the Art institute on Dece-ember 7, it was not possible for the ex-it to be arranged here at the art institute. While the pictures were in Youngstown, eight were added to the original twenty from the art institute.

These eight were sent by American artists. Every picture in the exhibit here will be original. From here the exhibit will go to Chicago and then on to Dubuque in May it will be shown at the University of Nebraska.

The Fine Arts association considered it fortunate to be able to secure Mr. Gadbury to hang the pictures because of his previous actuations. Mr. Gadbury is a native of Iowa tempera-to a finish. He is a member of the Iowa State Art association and has just returned from the border.
