Corvallel Mayor Makes Thrilling Arrest

TWO UNIVERSITY STUDENTS IMPRISONED IN THE MURKY CONFINES OF THE UNIVERSITY GYMNASIUM—STORY—"YOU'RE ARRESTED," SHOUTED THE MOUNT. "THEY WERE ARRESTED"

As the car slowed down at Corvallel the two young men stopped at the center of the gymnasium and were driven for a dress in a black. The force had been honoring the the lack of any clothes and a "bachelor's" hat on his head. The young man looked around and was driving the bright star on the Mayor of Corvallel.

Mayor's Arrest

Consideration on the part of the arrested and a nose drooping down toward the floor of the court and the University in the court to the course of the gymnasium for the evidence of the criminal. The complaint in the case of the mayor was the preplanning of the committee by the mayor. "You're Arrested!" announced the representative of the law. The men surrendered.

MARCH 21 DATE SET FOR GIRLS' DEBATE

The girls' late-senior debate will be last to be held. The date set is Wednesday, March 21, because this was chosen as far as it was impossible to hold the debate when the committee was ready.

The proposition to be debated is: "Resolved, that the statute at the University of Chicago shall be a system of self-government. And hence it is to be interpreted to include the honor system."

On Wednesday evening the resolution from Branch will be the affirmative team from Whitby, and the negative team from the 'victims and the entertaining team from the University. There will be no team who shall challenge either one of the winners of those two debates. On March 28 the finals will be held.

Members of the teams are: Henshaw, Haber, Shaw, and Blum. Charles Gould will be the judge for the day of the coming debate.

William Sh_identical with the house of John J. Bitterman at 126 East Market Street. It will be Grinnell College against the University, visiting Dudley House at his home on Iowa Avenue this week end.

MINOR ATHLETIC RECOGNITION

The interest which is being developed in gymnastics both in the east and west indicates that it is growing in popularity. To become efficient on the present team or on the other parts of the apparatus, the athlete must meet the requirements proposed by the faculty. The writer must sign the article to show his good faith in signing it, but no name will be printed if the writer so designates.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABSENCE REGULATIONS IN THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

In response to the protests made by the captain "Students Want Light" which appeared in an issue of the Daily Iowan the Executive Committee has asked the undersigned to make a brief explanation of the absence regulations which were adopted by the faculty March 8, 1916.

1. Every student in the College of Liberal Arts is expected to attend every class and laboratory exercise, and is expected to be present at all athletic and social events to which he is invited.

2. The grade and amount of credit awarded to any student in any course shall be determined, except as provided in paragraph 3 following, entirely by the instructor in that course subject only to the regulations of the department and the regulations of the college.

3. Students shall be excused from attendance at all classes and examinations except as provided in paragraph 4 below.

4. Any work missed by the student because of absence may be made up in any satisfactory manner in the instructor's course subject only to the regulations of the department and the college.

5. Reports of absences in separate lists for every subject in the college shall be made only on the instruction of the instructor subject to the regulations of the college.

6. When absence occurs, explanation of the same shall be made by the student within three days of the absence unless such absence is excused by the faculty.

7. No student shall be excused from attendance at all classes and examinations except as provided in paragraph 4 below.

ARTHUR G. HECKEL

Bachelor of Law University of Michigan

He has made an average of $108 a week for two summers through the Scholarship Department of the Review of Reviews.

He had no experience when he took up this work, but he tried a plan of exceptional merit.

He didn't have to deliver any goods.

He didn't do any house to house canvassing.

He had no competition.

His scholarships amounted to $25 and he worked them himself.

He received a great deal of experience in the management of a small business, and with our special assignments he was able to profit from the experience.

Two Iowa students have secured large sums through this plan. Miss Virginia Cooper $100. Miss Edna Krassman $125.

It is endorsed by university employment bureaus everywhere as the best means for securing funds for a college education.

Over 3000 students have tried it and gone to college all expenses paid. You should also give it a trial.

BUSINESS NOT LIKE WAR
"Two sold at one time that business is like war.
Perhaps it was at one time, but there's been a change."
War means cruelty, bitterness, deception and destruction. Victory rides on rain.
Modern business means cooperation.
Serious have become amicable.
Opposition is obsolete, almost.
Strategy is rivalry in service.
Attacks are in bad order.
Exploitation, as well as venomous, forbids a suitable act.
Competitors meet on every ground. What one man learns he gladly gives to others.
Business tastes has grown an atmosphere of courte-
y and of mutual help.
The man who lacks this spirit should not advertise. He is at discord with the everyday trend. The love he lets none know of him the better.

TO USE INFLUENCE FOR GREATER IOWA

Theodore Garfield, president of Purdue University, said that he believed that every student in the University felt the need of the organization and that the executives should be should be of the kind that the organization has had for some time
and like which the law students are getting.

Six Speaks

Hubert H. Stitt, president of the University student body, in addressing the opinion that he felt that an organization should not be misinterpreted, said that the university should have as its purpose more than student self-government; that it should be an association
that could voice student sentiment and get back student assistance. He said: "The students should get behind The Dail Iowa, the club system, the debating teams, and athletics. It should be more than an organization of a boarding house like the Iowa Union. It should have as its purpose more than student self-government."

Stanley Hands, graduate of the engineering college, said that he felt that the alumni of the University would be in favor of such an organization if it could be carried out.

Appoint Committee

After the discussion by the representatives, it was moved, seconded, and carried, that the chairman be empowered to appoint a committee composed of one representative from each college and with two representatives from the liberal arts college, one of whom should be a girl. This committee was to draft resolutions and submit a constitution to the body for its approval. Final action will be taken by all the students at the University at a general meeting held for that purpose. Mr. Emmons will announce tentative constituents in The Daily Iowa in the near future.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF SOY

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Simmons of this city have received word of the birth of a son, Richard Emmons, to Mrs. and Richard Emmons of Des Moines yesterday.

Mr. Simmons was graduated from the college of dentistry in 1913. He was president of the University Glee club for three years. Mrs. Simmons, formerly Evelyn Brown of Clinton, 1284-42 was president of the Student Union library society. She was graduated from liberal arts college in 1911.

with dressing costume. And here they are, the whole department overflowing with masterpieces in the art of petticoat-making.

Of course, TAPERTA is THE material—but in such wonderful shades, gold, pearl grays, bright sky blues—mixing color for every taste. New champagne effects, red to green, gold to blue, —effete lilies-undertones. Rich Persians, two-colors—chintzes in opulent new orange patterns. You NINER see such a gorgeous display.

And as to styles—we cannot truthly present—mix short lacing, triple and three fancy rolls, library opulences. Petticoats—"a complete outfit only a fashion novice can know after FIVE minutes HERE. Come, see this Petticoat Show annual,—select your spring "Fla-
