OFFICIAL WEEKLY CALENDAR

Schedules for this Calendar are now Due in Regular Form at the Publisher's Office not later than Thursday.

SATURDAY, MARCH 17, 1940

To the Editor: Again look carefully Mr. O'Connor. In your own defenses, for surely it must be your own fault that it is necessary to write a letter to the Editor. In the columna article by the above mentioned Mr. O'Connor seems to deal principal ally with the question of arrogance in freedom of speech and of press. This does not appear to be uplifted for himself and his "fal- low-jurists." However, he evidently means to convey that we should allow them to say whatever they choose, not so much because they are on the same side as trenchant as because the thing may have been said in a way that is not altogether reprehensible. In any event they may have the right to express their opinions. You have merely appealed to the Inalienable rights to have freedom of speech and press actively to men and institutions.

Judge Horace E. Deemer Was First University Pitcher to Curve Ball

The Register, commenting on Judge Horace Deemer's influence in the company, says he was one of a group of young men at the State university between 1875 and 1881 who saw what great influences in the men, and that he was a champion bow player.

When Horace Deemer came to the University law school in 1875 this ball ability was known to every member of the University ball team. Deemer lived at West Liberty, and the university team had been bested by him twice. Deemer, with his great hands that completely enveloped a bat, was a natural catcher. There were two or three Deemers on the West Liberty team, every one a natural ball player, but Horace Deemer was his catcher and captain.

The University team at that time had been organized in 1874 and was in its first year. Cadby Chase, now senior Chase, of Webster City, was pitcher, W. O. Finkbein, now of Des Moines, Frank and Fred Kent of Tilton, "Pop" Charles Rountree of Eldora, later a banker of Fort Hill, Kenneth, Olin Follom, of Des Moines, George Prosten, of Des- moines, Fred B. P. Vanderpool of Ossage, later of Des Moines, Minnesota, and Arthur Gauthier, who was catcher, composed the team. Most of them belong to class of 1893. Chase with his long arm threw a ball like a bullet, and his early ball was his weakness. There were no gloves in those days, and the first man that ever came to Iowa City was marched into the catcher's box by a swift fast hit.

When Deemer came to the Univer- sity he went straight into the Univer- sity team. He was a good batter and was able to play any position. His refusal to try to catch Ossage was one of his big hits. Deemer had been at the University a month. Chapley Roy, of Marshalltown, had given a curve ball pitcher and had tried it, but only on long throws to make it work. We were throwing a ball at a meeting in one of the old capital building one afternoon when Deemer came up.

"You've been to Cedar Rapids and saw Hiss pitch a curve," said Deemer. "Look here," he said. He stepped off the regulation distance and squeezed up a moment as he always did when he pitched to three outs for Ossage. Just before it reached him it broke in a sweeping out curve and hit him, but he was not hurt. He had thrown a curve ball hard and had missed it.

And Now Come New Delights

We want you to hear The Brunswick Phonograph. We want you to compare it with any phonograph you ever heard. More people know about phonographs, the more critical you are, the more anxious we are for you to hear and compare

The Brunswick

Then we want to point out the many exclusive devices of The Brunswick. Chief among these fea- tures is the ability to play any record of any make of the new Brunswick limited to any one mode of record—with The Brunswick you can play all you like. The record sound boxes are furnished. Any box may be used, including the special box, the original box. All without extra cost. While you can play all records with The Brunswick, we especially recommend Pacific Records. Music Box or Pacific Records and The Brunswick Phonograph form the ideal combination. Please pay attention to the cabinet work of The Brunswick. It represents the last word in all that is good, and is the only instrument that has so far been made.

There are other features which we wish to make known, such as the occasionally perfect sound chamber, the automatic record changer, the improved tone arm, the improved coil, and, best of all, the reasonable prices in sound, tone and size—and tone. You will be welcome at any time. Come and have your own favorite ren- tals played on The Brunswick.

Study of Law

is the inherent principle of Instruction in the College of Law of Drake University.

In few of the schools of the United States do students have opportunities for the observance of actual court work open to the students of Drake. In Des Moines, Municipal and State courts are in session daily. The State Supreme and the United States Federal courts are in session several periods during each school year. The laws of Iowa are made by the Iowa legislature each biennial session within forty minutes ride of the Drake campus. The faculty of the Drake School combines men of high theoreti- cal and practical education and training and active attorneys and jurists, the latter bringing to the class the recent views of present day law procedures.
