CRIMINAL PRISONERS FAIR

Doctor Hormes says Runners of Broad Rivers Totally Unfounded.

In Frank Hormes of Chicago, who has just returned from Germany, was carried on an investigation of various prisons and hospitals in the United States government, left February 15th for Europe after a three-day visit with his brother-in-law, Dr. Arthur Steinberger, professor of orthopedics in the medical college of Columbia.

Most of the Old Men Not Other- wise Engaged Have Appeared in Town

By far the most pleasing spring football practice that has ever been held at Iowa is being conducted for the week going on by Coach Howard Jones. Twenty-five men are reporting for the first time this season.

A few of the material which is coming out is particularly gratifying. A number of men that had not been seen for some time are doing splendidly.

DEVELOPMENT OF PRISONERS

"Lest—a bug. No reward is offered for it as it is American property," said Captain C. M. Currin, of the bacteriological department of the army, in a message telegraphed to the department yesterday. Discovered a rare species of louse which he was not prepared to state in detail.

The louse is not a bug, but the id of the man. Louse C. M. Currin is making a collection of lice from various water surfaces and this specimen was desired for the collection.

WAR DEPARTMENT WIRES TO MUMMA

Adjutant General Wants the Numbers of the Women's Taper Clansmen.

"Is the government prepared to place more women and junior officer in the army as required officer in a case of war?"

This is the question that follows naturally upon the slightest information given by a telegram received yesterday from the Adjutant General, Captain Merton C. Currin, to Major General Frank M. Kuever.

"Wire number of students in advanced course reserved officer training in various Virginia districts, as number of cases in junior class, the same number of cases in senior class, to be sent to the Adjutant General at once.

"Second general of our army, who is the general in chief of our army, is the general in chief of the United States, and number of the young men who will be available for officers in the country in".

PHARMACISTS NOW HAVE CONSTITUTION

At Work in Incorporating Legislation—Send Petition to Byington.

The students of the college of pharmacy yesterday afternoon and adopted a constitution for their own student association. The constitution approved gives the association control over all student activities in the college of pharmacy and expressly in the hands of the faculty is the Superintendent Pharmaceutical Association of the State University of Iowa.

The first work of the constitution was in seed a petition signed by every student in college of Byington. In support of the pharmacy preregistration bill which would require every individual to be a graduate of a recognized college of pharmacy before he could be permitted to take the examination of the state pharmacists to registrant.

DEFENSE FOUND FOR WOMEN'S BEST WEAPON

Where is the other end of the ladder? A column of building paper and wire was positioned around the new brick group being located in Memorial hall to keep the reports away from the opening day, but some overmuch anxious student attempted to open a gap by making a saltpetre box. One of the accessory members in- troduces this process, however, no one has ever seen anyone make a box from his rightful owner, and they did the work.

The college expresses themselves in the enthusiasm of the women of the University. Through the efforts of the Women's Association and the cooperation of various organizations, women were selected by the board of visitors for attendance all of the time during the two days of the campaign. Students sold flagstaff in the University stations, Cudahy hall, and the Nurses' home. Returns from these places make in blocks of ninety and one hundred tickets, sold by one or two parties at each place.

All of the students were loyal in the handling of the tags, says the conducted of the campaign. The faculty members, especially, showed their interest by buying at almost every opportunity. The University elementary school of the women and the women's gym are also eager and interested customers at the tables in the local arts and natural science halls.

CHILD NOW WALKS
WITHOUT CRUTCHES.

"Just watch me step on my foot," said little Christine L., and ten years, at the Perkins ward of the University hospital yesterday after a terrace.

"You know," she said, as she walked in the reporter. "They just fitted the cast off and my foot is strong, and I can step down on St. Loecky--

And with that Christine proceeded to demonstrate by taking a few steps on her bare foot across the floor.

"Of course it's a little sore. When Doctor Holladay took off the cast he said, 'Get in white' and white' and to never wear until it's all right, and I know that it is all right." Upon being asked whether she could ever wear the shoes that her foot was best under her foot and she couldn't walk on his period with crutches. She is very anxious to go to her home in Ozena and see the other little girls that she can really walk and play with them.

"Bewitched"--A Beggars Opera

In London, March 30

At the Old Vic Theatre, Lorsie

Of the singing, the playing, and the acting, Sir John Barbirolli produces a masterly opera. The music is that of the old English songs, and the orchestra is of the old English style.

It is a most unusual opera, and is well worth seeing. The music is superb, and the acting is excellent. The opera is a great success.
