ROOKIES HAVE TO USE WOODEN GUNS

Great Demand for Rifles in Colleges Causes Shortage.

Wooden guns have been called for by the training of the thousands of college and university men who were placed on the rolls by the recent call for training. The demand could not be accomplished by the supply of regular rifles on hand. This circumstance of preparation was brought to light in a letter addressed to President Farnum by the In-V, Manu­facturing company of Newport, New England.

The announcement concerned the supply of equipment at modest prices and the shortage of wooden guns for drill purposes. The letter declares that decisions of the regulation Springfield rifles.

Hainslady's support cracked badly both in the infield and outfield yesterday afternoon when Chicago defeated Iowa at baseball 5 to 1. The Hawk­ers made six errors, and some oth­er plays once dangerously near to be­ing got in the same races.

Three runs batted in by Chicago in the seventh inning were enough to win the game, as it turned out, and those misses served mostly to mount the Iowa tally to the total. A two-bagger by C. A. bit hitman, and a single in the seventh turned over three tally when the Iowa infielders flubbed it up.

Redmond's Red Rock.

WAR DENTIST TELLS OF WORK IN FRANCE

LECTURE SPENT THREE MONTHS IN HOSPITAL, FRONT, RECOVERING, LEST JAWS.

Work of the American Ambulance Ambulance is France, especially that of the dental surgeons, was described and illustrated by Dr. T. L. LeCron at a lecture in the Department of the French in the American Ambulance Service.

Dr. LeCron has spent several months in hospital here, and has gathered much experience in treating jaws and bone for various dental applications. The French now have heavy casualties in which there are many soldiers who have lost one or both jaws and are therefore unable to use their hands to work, and the dental surgeon must sometimes clean up the mouth and close out little pieces of bone and alveoli from the mouth. The surgeon must also build on a new jaw and mouth.

The first operations are so simple as to be possible and are followed by intervals in which the facial appearance and appearance are further restored. Sometimes an assistant fixes or reconstructs the jaw by a series of operations, requiring two or three years, and sometimes the jaw is fixed in one stage.

This is the experience of the American Ambulance Hospital in France, and is about to be used in the hospital here.

The executive committee of the college of liberal arts passed a resolution last evening urging every student of the college to attend the concert to be given by the Minnesota Symphony orchestra on Tuesday, May 3. The committee expressed the necessity of increasing the student body.

The meeting of the liberal arts faculty will not be held until Wednesday evening, which will be too late for any special legislation. The committee, however, felt that no special legislation was necessary; as under the present ruling absence may occur with a reasonable excuse. All should be in attendance to attend the concert Tuesday evening.

NOTICE TO MEDICAL STUDENTS

In students in the College of Medicine and to pre-medical students.

In connection with the recent regulations granting the granting of credit to students who enter government service adopted by the Iowa State Board of Education May 3, 1911, it is to be said that according to our present positon and the instruction of the medical authorities commented on with the Council of National Defense, the most acceptable service which medical students can render to the country is in the way of national defense is to complete their medical courses of study without interruption in the regular way, and the most of the need for service in the national defense which can be rendered by pre-medical students who are not in medical school is to complete their pre-medical studies without interruption in the regular way so as to be ready for admission to the fresh man class in medicine at the earliest practicable moment consistent with proper preparation.

There is no reason, therefore, why the University should grant credit to medical students and pre-medical students for courses which they fail to complete by reason of their leaving the University before the end of the present semester; and each one for courses uncompleted in this semester will not be given nor will the University hold itself responsible to the cases of the class of students referred to for making up uncompleted courses at a later time in order to make it possible for students leaving pre-requirement courses for this year in order to carry forward the succeeding courses. Therefore, in case any medical or pre-medical student chooses to leave his studies at the end of the present semester in order to engage in one of the forms of service for the nation, not only the regulations, but the whole country, as far as the regulations and its medical or pre-medical studies, which is the most acceptable form of each service, he holds without expecting the approval of the regulations which have been made by the State Board of Education.
