GRADUATE STUDENTS REPORT ON SURVEY

Smith and Martin, both members of the Survey and Tests in the Public Schools at Union, Iowa. They have just completed a survey of the schools in the state. The main object of the survey, according to Mr. Martin, was to make careful study of the second and third grades by the use of the student tests and some pedagogical tools in order that these grades might be divided into sections on the basis of their academic achievement. In this survey, a study of the building was made and recommendations made for its improvement.

INFLUENCE OF GERMAN PHILOSOPHY

The ideas which German political philosophers have advocated and popularized regarding the state have had a tremendous influence, not only on the German people but also on the thinking of the world at large.

The following is a list of some of the main ideas of German philosophers and their influence on the development of modern political thinking:

1. The concept of the state as a social organism, which requires cooperation and collective action among its members.

2. The idea of the state as a protector of individual rights, which has led to the development of constitutional government.

3. The notion of the state as a temporary and limited authority, which has influenced the development of democratic institutions.

4. The idea that the state should be based on a system of laws, which has led to the development of legal systems.

5. The concept of the state as a means to promote social and economic progress, which has led to the development of social policies.

These ideas have had a profound influence on the development of modern political thought, and they continue to shape the way we think about the state today.

College World

The university of Kansas will give a non-credit course in shorthand and typewriting. There are about two-fifths of the students now enrolled. Instruction in shorthand will be given every afternoon, and the typewriter class will last from 4 to 6 o'clock. Students at the university of Illinois are now drawing up a petition to ask the effect that all seniors who have a mature history in the course should not have to take an examination in the course. The variety and freshman band concert at Prinston had their music that the best of the German people is the "moral" people that is destined to become the master of the world. This idea has been accepted and popularized by the German people. The reasons why American and German society has fostered among the people the idea that the "moral" people is destined to become the master of the world are explained in "The Ideas of German Philosophy" by Professor John C. A..

"The Ideas of German Philosophy" by Professor John C. A. is a recent book that covers the major ideas that have influenced the development of modern political thought. The book is available at most bookstores and can be found in most libraries.

Twenty-five years ago the General Electric Company was founded.

It has set the spirit of research.

It has given tangible form to inventions, in apparatus of infinite precision and giant power.

And it has gone forth, operating with every industry, to command the access of force and find it for some all people.

By the achievements which this company has already recorded may be judged the greater ends in future shall arrive, the deeper resources to shall make in developing one and more of the wondi.

MANY MEN ARE OUT FOR THE LOCAL TRACK MEET
Track men will meet in their first meet competition next this afternoon at 1 o'clock on the Indoor Track, according to Coach J. P. Walden. "The meet will have no bearing upon the selection of a team for the opening meet with Ames," said Warden.

Fifty men had signed up for the various events late yesterday afternoon. More than a dozen entrants will participate in the 25 yard dash; will run in the half mile; at tion will contest in the mile; half mile, and quarter mile. Only two men have signed up for the shot put and three for the pole vault.

"Triumphs for the dual meet with Ames will be held on March 7, the track coach said yesterday. "This meet this afternoon is held to create an interest and rivalry among the athletes," he explained.

Club Proms And Book...

In the past year the club has put out a collection of articles, stories, poetry and sketches, called "Poetry Gold" written by members of the club.

The book was received with much enthusiasm.

Students of the University are encouraged to compete in the contest which the club is offering. It is in the opinion of a number of the facul- ty members which there is unusual talent in the University this year and they would be glad to see the University well represented in the work entered.
