Friday evening the annual graduation recital of the school of music, which has become one of the most popular events of the season, will be held in the auditorium and the senior party at the Road to Grecian.

TO ELECT TODAY

The Harvard community will hold its final meeting of the year in the Home economic building at 8:30 o'clock to elect officers for next year. The board of four to which this club has beenincorporated in accordance with the regulations of the Harvard Student Council, will take the place of the last year's board.
The Civil War dealt brought home the fact. The same year an artillery company was authorized and the govern ment prepared to furnish the material for the service of its citizens. During the four years of war 124 men left the University. Not only the unit itself but personal dis ability and age were delayed. During the war Governor Kirkwood recommended in the legis lature, the establishment of military training at the state institutions but the lack of money had to meet post the matter.

Attendance at Iowa Summer Session
To Be Largest in History.

The attendance at the 1918 summmer session of the University promises to be the largest in the history of the institution, according to Dr. C. H. Weller, director. Many students, he says, are taking advantage of the opportunity to take their regular college course to three years at the summer session under a new plan announced recently by the Dean.

The University's first summer session was held in 1903. This session was attended by about eighty students. From this small beginning the summer school has grown vaster, last year, more than six hundred persons were enrolled. The expen-sions of the summer season over the regular school year in many respects is being recognized by students, Dr. Weller explains.

FRENCH AND SPANISH SUPPLANTING GERMAN

Overview of Enemy's Tongue Displaced Romance Languages to Come Into Popularity.

The speed of the study of French in the public schools of Iowa is proving itself to be as quick as it is wide, according to Prof. E. G. Atkin, director of the Romance languages department, who has come into a new prominence through the increase of the German language in Iowa.

Miller has gone through our data and concludes that in 229 schools of Iowa in progress the year past, and 15 more will introduce French and Spanish in the near future. At press time the composite of these data are as follows:

Under the German, the French and Spanish languages, there has come a tremendous demand for French and Spanish teachers. Professor Atkin estimates that in 229 schools which will be communicated complete in fifty to six years in French and a group in Spanish will be introduced. The enroll-mot in the Romance language department in the past year has been the greatest in history, as it must be to meet this new demand for French and Spanish teachers throughout the state.
