As Dean of Students, I am in favor of any council and feel sure that if the students of the University wish to move in the movement, results will be achieved which will benefit both the colleges and which will do much for the welfare of the University,"

ALL-UNIVERSITY DAY

Iowa is to have an All-University day. The union of all in an innovation will cause many students and faculty members to rejoice, for it is expected that the University is in need of such a day. Petty politics and an ill-regulated council, through their control of the class elections to the disgust of the student body.

Custodian with the All-University day will be the inauguration of the institution. Student body, rats to the first time in the history of the institution, have the privilege of electing their heads, to represent them on a body which is to be co-operative with the faculty and which asks for the student in which it is a new era for the students at large.

The matter of a student council and an All-University day was agitated last spring. A. F. L. and Bob and Circle, honorary seniors societies, initiated the plan, which the new members of the same societies have completed. The plan will be to the stopping efforts that the credit for this innovation should be given. Students of Iowa are awakening upon a new era at the University, an era in which the student body, the institution in which it is a new era for the students at large.

WHAT EVERY STUDENT OUGHT TO KNOW

Students of the University are invited to become contributors to the Iowa Alumnus. The editor desires short articles and sketches that will represent student activities, and that will tell the student what student life is like on the campus is today.
1

Every student ought to know that the Alumnus is just as much his magazine now, as it will be after he leaves the University. Every student ought to read the Alumnus, and make the traditions of the University his own, so that when he leaves the campus and class room, he may not become a puny unit in a body of 18,000 alumni, but a real power.

A graduate of '74, who has not been back since his graduation, writes that he is "knobby" for news of his classmates and of the University. He desires to keep in touch with Alum-mae; he wants to know what is going on; all about the social activities which make the interest keen, and keep the University alive. Won't you tell him, and many others like him, about the big things you are doing at Iowa?

Our concern is also reserved for the students' best output in literary form, poems, stories, or fictional activities. We certainly hope that you will keep up your interest to the end of your college career.
Tell your classmates, for this is what every student ought to know that we offer you an opportunity for publishing your work in print. It is a limited degree and work you have ster manuscript to the Editor,

IN BIG TEN CIRCLES

Michigan: Secret practice has been in session at Ann Arbor all week in preparation for tomorrow's game with Ohio State, which is regarded as one of the most decisive in the Big Ten as it eliminates one of the chief contenders. Both schools are represented by great teams and in Morning, bracketing, York, and Gates the Michiganites will witness some of the outstanding football ever produced.

Ohio: "Stop Harry" cries from Michigan show the respect that is accorded to the Buckeye halfback who has skated the ends of every game against this season. Followers of Ohio State are enthusiastic over the prospects of their team and a huge demonstration is going to make the trip to Michigan. Open play is the bristle style with the Buckeyes but in Michigan the wesejikoppers have a man who is able to hit any line with good results.

Iliinois: Hard luck stories arise from the camp of Big Red. On the day of the great battle with Wisconsin, Forrestan and Logan were both reported on the injured list. Iowa scored against the Illini by the usual route and it is likely that the Wisconsin Badgers will be dangerous as they make use of this style in their play the ball all.

Northwestern: Coach Buchak is making strenuous efforts to develop his Northwesterners to such a counter that all can pilot the team without continuing. His last week's game with Wisconsin three men were tried out but none performed satisfactorily to the coach.
The rest of the backfield is up to a real football and are sure to give a good account of themselves.

Purple go down to Stagg field tomorrow.

K. A. Joiner, manager of the men's dormitory announces that there are two private dining rooms in the dormitory now ready for use.
These dining rooms, according to Mr. Joiner, are equipped especially for dinner parties. Each room will accommodate twelve persons. Arrangements for such parties may be made with Mr. Joiner.

Friendly Class will meet Sunday morning 8 30 at the English Luth-arian church. Her Rev. C. Schippers is the leader. He will talk on Why I Aunt Lucie. Come and get acquainted.

Buccal League of Iowa City will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club room this coming Sunday evening at 7 30.
All members of the University Players are urged to be present.

First With the New Styles

It is through our doorway that the new styles fit make their appearance in this city, because it is here that Society Brand Clothes are sold.

At the start of each season men come to us and ask, "What Society Brand showing?" When we display these new ideas, we are now doing, it's an opportunity you ought not miss.

Society Brand Clothes
FOR YOUNG MEN AND MEN WHO STAY YOUNG

These clothes cost a little more, but it costs more to make them. Each garment is cut by hand. Each tailored by hand in accordance with most exacting specifications. Thus the style is in-built. It is not put in with a hot iron. As a result a Society Brand garment never loses its shape and shapeliness.

RAINBOW VETERANS PLAN BANQUET

Former Members of This Famous Division Celebrate Bicentennial Anniversary

Twenty-four men of the University who were members of the Rainbow Division have arranged for a big party to be held the evening of November 15, in the lounge of Hotel Jefferson.

Vestiges of this famous division who will be seated at their first formal dinner, were largely comprised from 14th Infantry. They are representatives of every rank from hard-hat-dollar to Investing-colonel, and half from almost every corner of the old outskirts.

Plans for the reunion were definitively decided upon at a meeting held in the Y.M.C.A. Wednesday evening, with James E. Thomas of the school of commerce in attendance.

Detailed arrangements are in the hands of a committee composed of Joseph B. Benge, '11, James M. Visting, '23 and Wilber Goble, '20. Although the idea was inaugurated by members of the 146th, the committee states that it is a sentiment that all men in the University who were members of the division should be present at the banquet, and requests that men falling in this class communicate with Chairman Joseph Benge, 528 Birch Clinton street, immediately.

KELLY'S STARS AND STRIPES

Joseph Grants Interview to Iowa Reporter—In Most About His Many Modals

"Why are there so many girls reporter nowadays?" asked Idet John Philip Joseph as he laid his hand in friendly fashion to the representation of The Daily during our tour. "I'm not little girls from Iowa, and they seem to be slower writers, too."

The great leader had been relaxing in the corridor in the rear of the campus during the five minutes intermission of the afternoon concert, but he immediately arose and began telling of some of his experiences with the enemies.

"It wouldn't be a concert without the Stars and Stripes."

From in Africa they knew that march and when I was there, Joseph gathered around and fairly wor- shiped me. They had heard the "Stars and Stripes" on the Victor talking machines and they seemed to think that I had created those instruments."

Lent, Joseph apparently did not want to take the trouble to mention the meaning of the medals he was wearing, but with a few words said: that one represented the honors of the French Academy. Another, the Victorian order, presented in his honor by King Edward, and the third was of the sixth army corps in which he served during the Spanish-American war.

"There is no regulation for holding my orders, is there?" inquired the leader, who is renowned for a cessation asking whether he would come to Iowa City again. "Well, I'll never play a farewell concert as long as I'm alive. I have so much to do."
