DOUGLAS HALL

The lecture will be given by Dr. W. J. E. Calhoun, of the United States Naval Academy, and will be part of a program to be given as a benefit for the Peace Conference of New Haven. The program will also include a concert by the University Orchestras.

About the Lecture

Dr. Calhoun is a well-known author and lecturer, and his lectures on the subject of life and death have been well-received. He will address the audience on the topic of life and death, and will provide an interesting and thought-provoking discussion on the subject.

The Peace Conference of New Haven

The Peace Conference of New Haven is an organization that works towards the promotion of peace and understanding. They host various events and lectures to raise awareness and support for their cause. This lecture is part of their efforts to educate the public on the importance of peace.

The University Orchestras

The University Orchestras will provide music for the program. The orchestras are composed of talented musicians from the University of New Haven, and their performances are always well-received.

Audience

The audience is expected to be enthusiastic and engaged, and the event is anticipated to be well-attended. The lecture will be a great opportunity to learn more about the topic of life and death, and to support the Peace Conference of New Haven.

Tickets and Information

Tickets for the lecture can be purchased at the door or online. For more information, please visit the Peace Conference of New Haven's website or contact them directly.
