MORE DELEGATES FOR STUDENT CONVENTION

Committee Votes on Final List of Representatives—Much Interest is Shown

Several more delegates have been selected by the student volunteer convention committee to go to the Psi Mu convention beginning December 21. They are: George Ferri, Delta Chi; Sigma Nu, mand; Allen Forder, senior media, Stan- ner; Thomas C., Lloyd Anderson '23, Paul R. Anderson '20, Louise Moore '23, Gamma Phi Beta, Heatherly Shire '21, Fantin Gates '21, Chi Omega, Will Barter '23, and Mary Rose, sophomore media.

According to a report of the convention committee, which has selected of names in charge, many applications of those who want to attend this convention have been re- ceived. "It is a splendid event; the problem before America today is world com- mitment. That is the main idea of the coming convention. In Des Moines," said Paul R. Anderson, chairman of the committee. All speeches are better carefully weighed to avoid cliche and sentimentalization, and enthusiastic delegations from the University bring back all the good things of the international gathering. says the committee.

WHERE DOES YOUR MONEY GO?

"I don't know where my money goes!"

If you don't know where your money goes, it is a savings account. The sacrifice of a small sum that goes into unknown expenditures is no sacrifice. The Savings Department of this bank pays 4 per cent interest compounded semi-annually. A dollar will start an account.

Don't spend your pay day with its useless checks. Sign a board with the hand pointing backward down the road of success. Make it a milestone where you don't know you won't miss it if it is put there.
