HISTORICAL MEETING TO REVIVE IOWA IEP

Students and Alumni Will Gather in "Oval" For Big Home-Meeting Program

The last big mass-meeting of the football season is scheduled for Home-meeting. "Five-thousand students and alumni will be at the "Oval" between the liberal arts and physical building Friday afternoon November 11 at 5 o'clock," says Prof. R. A. Kinsman, chairman of the team meeting committee for Home-meeting. Colonel R. B. Howell will preside over the gathering. Former athletes and alumni will tell of old Iowa "pop," and present football stars will help in reviving present spirit for the Alma Mater.

Programs and University songs will be printed for every one, reports Professor Buescher, chairman of the committee that will be erected to permit all to enter into the sport of the afternoon. Electric lights will be turned on to light up part of the campus for the convenience.

The band will be there to lend their orchestrations and create the thrill. Tell your friends to come - and bring your University yells and songs. The scene should be grand. "Put this party in your Home-meeting program," say all Iowa boosters.

MEMBERS OF UNIVERSITY BAND EXPLORED CHICAGO

The members of the University band explored the Chicago trip so that the majority of them might have the opportunity of seeing Chicago. The band members returned to give a concert at the high school. The concert was held on Sunday morning, and was the last concert of the few members seen on the campus yesterday. "We enjoyed ourselves more than we expected. We had the best of everything and the game was far beyond anything we expected in the city."

The second half entertainers ran so high that the band played on the second half of the second game. The deserializer was given a concert in front of our hotel on Monday night. "We gave a short concert in front of our hotel on Monday night."

Invasion of the Midway that made the Windy City face all up and take notice.

On the field the two dozen fought, Milwaukee and kept the great crowd on its toes with hair raising plays. When Huchinson of Chicago fumbled the ball near the center of the field, shortly after the start of the game and Iowa recovered, the Old Gold machine launched an irresistible attack against the Maroons that was not stopped until the visitors registered a touchdown. Ashley Devine's forward pass, thrown on the dead down to his brother and Belding and Captain Fred Lehman's driving line blocks did the work.

Haggis Burns for Maroons Stagg's victory made good use of their 313 pound captain at tackle in the second quarter and drove plays through his position and over Block and Hunzleman. This concentrated attack enabled Chicago to take the event at six points. Both teams stiffened in the third period and no scoring was done. Aubrey Devine started seen but few of the men on the floor of dangerous territory until the fourth vi-ted, Dr. Weller says. The party dress book and Eastern Machine launched an Irresistable run to his brother and Belding and day afternoon was well attended.
