HUMOROUS MAGAZINE WILL APPEAR SOON

Privile Will Contain Many Novel Features Published Un-concealed Iowa

Privile, the University's new magazine of humor, which will appear on the campus December 10, is to comprise and will go to the printers Monday, according to Warren Hagen, chairman of the committee in charge.

articles from the student department have been completed and the committee is working in the background to fill this new publication. It is as much a part of the students' activities as a daily.

Privile is published by Sigma Delta Chi and Theta Sigma Pi, the University scholastic honorary classes.

The first issue of Privile will contain 8000 copies and will be sale on the campus for twenty-five cents.

THE READING CONTEST IS MONDAY

ARTISTIC READING CONTEST IS MONDAY

Article reading contest preliminary will be held Monday, December 1, in the natural science auditorium, according to E. Kilker Verry, president of the Waverly Fraternal council.

The preliminary was postponed from Friday afternoon to Monday evening. Out of twenty-two entered, registered for the try-outs, six will be chosen to appear in the final contest December 2, at 7:45 o'clock in the natural science auditorium, says Verry.

STUDENT COUNCIL WILL BANQUET FOOTBALL MEN

Football men will be guests of the student council at a banquet, the date of which will be set sometime the latter part of December. Edward Chamberton of the community committee, who will receive the cash, has charge, with Inglis, Kirkland, Mason and Morganway as co-workers.

"The banquet is to be an expression of the students' love of their fellow co-operators," says J. A. Wilk, treasurer, president of the council.

Tickets will be sold to the student body for the banquet which will probably be held in the women's gymnasium.

HOSIERE TO WRESTLE THREE DOUBLE MENTS

Wrestlers will wrestle in three dual meets. These dual meets will probably be with the University of Nebraska.

Three dual meets will be decided upon later by the University athletic board. The place and time of holding these meets may not have been decided upon.

In case a conference meet is held in Illinois this winter there is a probability that Iowa will be represented.\n
BACHMAN'S BAND IN TWO VARIOUS CONCERTS

Small audiences attended the afternoons and evening concerts of the Million Dollar Band in several locations.

In its last concert, the band performed at the University armory after the evening concert and at the YMCA downtown auditorium. The band delivered the music from the stage for the afternoons concert and in the evening concert, a violin solo, Stephen Allen, played by Mrs. Charles Rich, was the most received number.
