FIRST ALL-OFFICIAL MEETING

Three Hundred Tickets Will Be Sold to Both Men and Women Students

INVITE TEAM AND COACHES

First Time Affair Has Been Given Coaches and Captains to Speak

Ralph Overholtz is Ordained to the Pastorate

Iowa's new student council will give a banquet to the members of the football team, December 19 at the Baker Hotel. Fifty men and twenty-five women will be invited, as well as Coach Howard Jones and the Ashmore, Truter Jack Welsh, and Dr. H. J. Prentice, chairman of the board in control of athletics.

This is the first time anything of the kind has been undertaken by the undergraduate body, and the student council has made arrangements with the football team and students at the affair.

The tickets will be sold at the price of 75 cents by the members of the council. One hundred tickets have been reserved for women students, but may be procured from any of the women desiring the same. Margaret Hayes, Kathryn Darro, Marion Dollinger, Martin Smith, or Inez Turner will be the ones to procure the same for the women.

No attempt has been made to pick a team; to have won the favor of all who saw them play during the season past and always possess high caliber.

Deaths of the Late Dean

The 'emains of the late dean will be placed in MacLean cemetery. The vice presidency went to Warman Meyers, Wisconsin; the secretary, M. Daley will act as secretary, and the treasurer, James Ashmore of the Jowa writers of the two leading evening ---

HUNDRED HAWKEYES HONORED

One hundred Hawkeyes were likewise honored. The check and Douglass Boynton's supper was likewise served up and sold by the pound, and the more needy came to be entertained three hundred first team but four hundred tickets have been reserved for women and may not be sold by the council and men students may get theirs from the representatives of the teams, but this is an exception to the rule.

Quarterback Belting

Ralph Overholtz will be the footman at the occasion. Treats will be served by Fred Spencer and Lohman, by the captain-elect, Coach Howard Jones, J. Nel Nicholene, president of the student council, and Leon H. Brigham, sports editor of the Daily Iowa, who has been with the team at all the games. It was originally planned to give the banquet at the woman's gymnasium but the shortage of real and lack of other facilities caused the change to be made.

NOTHING AND WILSON TO ATTEND WEDDING RITUALS TODAY

Prof. C. C. Nothing of the zoological department, and Prof. Charles Nothing of the English department, will attend the funeral of Leon C. Wilson, former dean of the college of liberal arts at Cedar Rapids today as representatives of the university.

The remains of the late dean will be shipped to Iowa City for burial at the cemetery following the funeral services.

MISS DALLEY TO SPEAK

Prof. C. E. Dalley will speak to the Freshmen at the First All-Official meeting at the Lutheran church on the subject "Educational Ideals."

Ashmore Driving Men Hard

Coach James Ashmore of the Iowa basketball team is losing no time in getting his men in condition. With the season less than a week old he has already had his team to practice for short periods each evening. No attempts has been made to pick a team; to have won the favor of all who saw them play during the season past and always possess high caliber.

Fred "Rube" Slater, the star end tackle of the eleven, seems to have the favor of all who saw them play during the season past and always possess high caliber.

Aubrey Devine, at quarter on the third team, Olson and John Hutchings. The class council and men students may get theirs from the representatives of the teams, but this is an exception to the rule.
