That the present fall situation in the city might necessitate the cancelling of the first three games on the Iowa basketball schedule, was the first expressed last night by C. T. Robinson, who refused to discuss the last game with Cornell five and one with Cee as billed for the home floor before Christmas vacation, but recent action taken by the board of directors as precedent, for the being turned off at the landscape window.

That the first and second floor court was as the provincial barn practices was called by Trask Weston, who refused to put the hoop artists in their abbreviated otherwise walking or short exercise.

REARRANGE CLASSES AT WOMEN'S GYM

Girls to Have Regular Work Out of Doors Until Building Is

Reopened Again

The hark has been shot off, the swimming pool is drained, and classes except twenty minute work on the second floor. Mr. S. H. Easton, are being held at the women's gymnasium. Emergency work with the idea of keeping the girls out of doors as much as possible in the plan by which physical reading will be read until the building is heated, according to Morton R. Lyon, head of the department.

Saturday evening and sisters or mad and otherwise walking or short exercises in the gymnasium will be taken, explains.

The increase in playground and the removal of the second floor, in charge of Rachel Sickman, are being read in the home economics building while a suitable place for athletics and folk dancing in athletic
