DELEGATES RETURN FROM CONVENTION

Forty-Six Iowa Representative Attend Student Volunteer Meet- ing at Des Moines

Forty-six University of Iowa delegations to the Student Volunteer convention that was held at the Student Union during the Christmas holidays, returned to the Iowa City Monday afternoon.

The convention opened Wednesday, December 31, at 3:30 o'clock at the Coliseum in Des Moines, with an address by Judge R. B. Meade, international secretary of the organizing committee. No special motions were made by students to entail a minuterie on the foreign or domestic.

Two, three, four, and five lectures were followed at each meeting of the convention in the morning and afternoon. The afternoons were devoted to the discussion of the general meetings.

The delegates will be called upon, now and then by different organizations to give side-lights on the conventions. Their first appearance will be made at the Y. M. C. A. testing this afternoon.

CELEBRATE FOUNDERS DAY

Political Science Club Observes Twentieth Anniversary

The Political Science club observed the twentieth anniversary of the organization at a regular meet- ing Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stiver. The paper of the evening was read by John C. Partick, an account of intellectual work in the American west.

The custom of observing the birth- day of the club was established five years ago when the late Judge Emil McFarland was president of the club. At the meeting this year four of the charter members: Judge Samuel Hayes, Prof. H. H. Muth, Prof. W. C. Durant, and Prof. R. F. Shanholtz were present. A feature of the anniversary was a presentation of the playing of the national anthem by an organist of the choruses of students who are charter members.

President Charles A. Schaefer, Prof. Jesse A. Lewis, Dean John W. Clute, Dean A. M. W. Current, and Dean G. G. Webb.

DELEGATES ADDRESS Y. W.

Delegates from the University that attended the Student Volunteer convention held in Des Moines during Christmas Vacation, were asked to give their impressions of the convention at the Y. W. C. A., meeting this afternoon and discussing the festivities of the day in the liberal arts drawing room. Changes in the custom- ary program were made because of a change in the date of the Y. W. C. A. meeting which was to be held at the close of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Underwood are now in Iowa City and plan to attend the Delta Delta Delta convention in October.

WISCONSIN WINS FROM IOWA IN BIG TEN CLASH

Badgers Invade Hawkeyes Camp and Menace Them for Long End of Score

GAME ENDS 35 TO 18

Shinlock Stays for Old Gold Rolling in 18 of the 18 Po- licons—Knapp, and Walsh Lead Men's Cake in Winning Match—Close Shot of Players

With Walsh, Knapp, and Shinlock continually轰炸ing the Wisconsin basket the Badgers had little trouble in defeating the Iowa quintet Monday afternoon. The Hawkeyes displayed some flashy work on the floor and kept the opposing guards muddy on the inside of the free throw line but collected 12 points for their efforts. Wisconsin entered the game big favorites and played a clever passing game throughout. The following is the pro- gramm for today: Twenty-third Year of Law, ordination will be granted for a term of six years. The existing laws for the preser- vation of American antiquities and national monuments were prepared by Mr. Underwood. He is the au- thor of numerous magazine articles and papers.

Mr. Hewett was director of the ex- hibits in sciences and arts at the Panama-California exposition and was now doing a similar work at the front and rear lines of battle. He is chairman of the committee of the ex- hibitions of the ancient City of Nuns at quivas, in Central America, and the ancient cliff dwellings and pueblos of the southwestern section of the United States. He was one of the founders and men of art and music, Mr. Thompson gave two additional addresses in the college of liberal arts and Mr. Cur- rington gave another.

The bankers of Iowa were besieged by the visiting delegations at a banquet in the Women's gymnastics room at 8 o'clock last evening.

The course will close Thursday afternoon. The following is the pro- gramm for today:

9:30 a.m. How to prepare an In- ternship for a Businessman. B. D. Van Muy. 10:45 a.m. How to Calculate City Finance. L. P. Billingsley. 1:20 p.m. Relations of the Economy and Local Profits to the Tax abilities of Iowa. Prof. C. B. Beck. 3:00 p.m. How to Determine In- surance in Keokuk and its Effect on Profits. Mr. Wood.

Clearance Sale of Fine Overcoats

We know a lot of men who have been “sitting tight” and “waiting for something to drop” who will jump at this chance.

For these men, as well as we do, that when the price of Hart Schaffner & Marx overcoats get as low as we have them marked here, right in the face of rising prices, it is going to take pretty snappy work on their part if they get in on the savings.

There’s no magic about this sale; we haven’t “pulled” any clever tricks in getting these coats. They’re our regular Hart Schaffner & Marx order, only the stylish, all-wool kind. We contracted for the wools last March and many of the deliveries have been delayed beyond the heavy selling season. We could carry them over until next year and make money on them, but that’s not our policy. The benefit is yours.
