A SELECT PARTY
The sophomore section promises to be a select affair. Of the 160 tickets to be sold, only twenty were placed on general sale. The remaining 110 were assigned to the members of the committees to allot among their friends. Many persons following the advice of advertisements, applied for tickets at the general sale window three hours after they had been placed on sale. Only to be disappointed.

Persons having friends on the committee had access to the tickets; others were not given a fair chance to secure them.

If the Sophomore Orchestra, the Funder Press, and the Funder Scoop are to be democratic and University parties, then should be, the majority of tickets should be assigned to friends of members of the bands of a few to distribute among friends.

University and chum parties should be more democratic.

VISOR STAGE must have known the modern vampire when he said: "The glance of women are like certain apparently peaceful, but really formidable machines."

Men who made dates for the Class of 1910, and the Class of 1916, and the Class of 1912, are more dangerous to the Class of 1918 than ever before.

The athletic board, however, in seeing the number of men who were interested enough in the mixer to obtain a ticket, did not give a great deal of thought to the quality of the material. "The through" at the gymnasium on Wednesday night must have astonished the members of the board that the men of the University are far track athletes. Now it is up to the board and up to the men to see what will result from this spirit of cooperation. It is certain that a more friendly feeling exists between the two. Both the Iowa believers, willing to get into their fighting tags, speaking literally, and go to it.

It is going to be a big job for Coach Jack Watson to build a team that will rank with the leading teams in the conference, but the Iowa believers believe he is capable of the task that faces him. The material is at hand, the key of enthusiasm has been opened, the season lines is off, and Iowa will be on its toes at the first crack of the gavel. Trust in Coach Watson!

contrasts or prove it. A good principle will always attain a falla- cious or a harmful end. But you will say, "The anarchists are de- structing property and starting solids; how do you expect ideas to redress these injustices?" The reply is that if the radicals are guilty of any misdemeanors or crimes, we have provided legal means for punishing them. Do not forget that the traditional American way is to per- mit freedom of speech and press, and if these liberties are abused, let us employ the instruments of punish- ment which we have created. And above all, let us always be armed by dispassionate and intellectual in- pulsions rather than by those of ex- citation.

Complaints have come to the social committee from several chapters lately, calling attention to the bad技术服务 to parties.
