IOWA DEFENDS BADGERS 21-20

HAWKESFORD SPURS IN LAST HALF BEATING IOWA-WISCONSIN QUINNET

Speedy Wisconsin Five Falls Before Iowa's Sturdy Play in Second Meeting.

STAGE A GREAT Comeback

Coach Ahern's Men Go Into Second Period With 17 to 6 Against Them, and Come Through with 14 Points Under Holding Opposition During Closing Minutes.

Special to Daily Iowan.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 10: Displaying form that was a complete surprise to Wisconsin, Iowa's basketball five campted away to victory over the Hawkeyes after being behind at the half. The final score was 21 to 16.

Iowa attacked strongly to begin the second half. Going into the interval with the score tied 17 to 17 against them, the Hawkeyes staged a whitewashed comeback. Not to be denied when strong, the offense but their defense was outplayed.

The visitors had no outstanding individual, but exhibited the manner in which they came back after being defeated apparently.

The Wisconsin supporters of their feet. To Shimk, the diminutive forward of the Iowa quintet, goes considerable credit for the victory. One of Iowa's choices to score tallies from the free-throw line, he scored five points, and counted two goals from the floor.

The starting five of badlanders Phyllis laid for the Hawkeyes with three, Worth made two, Shimk two and the goals.

Wisconsin started strongly and apparently were overcome at the beginning of the second period. West, who played in such whirlwind fashion, averaged the game.

Two days ago, continued in such form, as well as the chairman along with Knapp.

Admiral Sims has brought serious charges against a member of the President's cabinet. The Senate should investigate these thoroughly. While the guilt of Secretary Daniels should remain unproved, if they are not, Admiral Sims should relinquish his post.

NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE
During the past ten days the University basketball team has played four games away from home. In each of these, the Indian Iowans have carried complete details of the game. Chicago and De Moines newspapers arriving in Iowa City on the same mornings did not even carry the results of the games. Their reports came later—twenty-four hours later. The Iowans simply call this to the attention of the readers to let them know that the University daily is one of the very wire organizations on the campus. Newspaper men call this newspaper enterprise.

John Barlow's funeral services were held at the University daily this week. The services were held in the University daily's offices at the university.
