BISHOP STUNTZ NEXT VESPER SPEAKER

Graduated From Upper Iowa University With Degree of Doctor of Divinity

Bishop Homer C. Stuntz, the Five Methodist Episcopal church of Onton, will speak at the upper page service, February 14. This is the first appearance of Bishop Stuntz in Iowa City; he is well known throughout the state, being one of the leading evangelicals in the Northwest, according to A. O. Thomas, chairman of the upper committee.

Although he is a native of Pella, he is well known in Iowa City, having served in this state, recording the degree of doctor of divinity from Upper Iowa University in 1893.

Preceding his election as bishop in 1917, he served the Methodist Church for twelve years in missionary work in South America and Asia. He has written an account of his work in the Philippines in his book "The Philippines," which was published by the American Missionary Association.

OLD GOLD BREAKS MARCH OF MAROONS FOR BIG TEN TITLE

Cookish Armstrong's Five Play In Championship Style And Lead Way of Vote

Keanstown Blanks Opponents On White Field as Iowa Harkney Attack—Hinkle and Hinkle Big Men of Chicago Quinter

Packed to the eell 20,000 cheering Hawkeye roots saw the Old Gold quintet smash the hopes of Phi Pogue Maroons for the conference title with a count of 28 to 18 last night in the armory.

It was a game reprieve with the sensation from the first play. Iowa used a short passing game against the Maroons, hit its targets and carried the Maroons and in consequence raised longer long shots.

Bill Hinkle for Chicago

Chicago frequently hit the ball and had it down near the center of the field. Hinkle was the chief-in-chief — but he gained four of his five leading yards during the second half. From the free zone line he was putting the ball in with regularity until the last minute when two attempts failed.

Worth Iowa Souring

Worth led in the scoring for Iowa with three field goals, but Keanstown, was close behind with two field goals and two free throws for a total of half 11 to 0 and continued to have Keanstown leading during the second period. Pflugro was everywhere on the floor, grittied past the Old Golds."

Open guards and keep the Hawkeye offense going at top speed all the time.

With five minutes to go the score stood 17-17 when and with this broken the teams tied again at 19 all. Hillsdale held Stimson without a field goal for the last five minutes of play and Stimson scored 1point on a free throw with only 1 second left.

Dope looked bad for Coach Am- brose's men, when they trailed on the floor to oppose Pup's underfitted lineup, but played a brand of basketball that deserved to win. Captain Nimsam was absent from the lineup on account of sickness and Arthur Devore placed in his place. But the chances didn't make a cog slip, the Hawkeyes looked like a championship team from the first.

Letters have been received from alumni to the effect that "Pfrord" as its first appearance attained a standard as high as those of eastern pub- lications, even to the first. To be representative of the student body have been very gratifying.
