Hawkeyes Primed for Battle With Indiana Tonight

PRACTICE AFTER DINNER
Delta Sigma Rho, honorary forensics fraternity, is holding a series of inquests in order that the members of the forensic section will be prepared for the maneuver which will be held in after dinner speaking. The first of the inquest series was given at the Horseshoe last Thursday. The second will be given February 26.

IDA TARELL, WOMAN POLITICAL WRITER, WILL LECTURE HERE
Prominent Author and Editor to Appear on Campus Course next Tuesday

PUBLISHED MANY WORKS
"Life of Lincoln," "History of Standards and oil," and "The Tarbell of Our Times" are among the many works that are in the author's name. The Tarbell, daughter of Prof. G. S. Honey, will be on the campus program, as announced last year.

$250 PRIZES OFFERED FOR POLITICAL ESSAYS
University of Iowa Students Are Given Opportunity of Competing For Harris Awards

Two hundred and forty dollars in cash prizes, two thousand dollars for essays, and many other prizes have been set up for essay writing. The prizes will be taken up seriously, says Miss Margaret Haas '23, who is editor of the American Magazine from 1896 to 1921. It is a fact that many magazine editors are the authors of the following books, which are some of the prize winners and which will be sold to the public. The judges will be the American Magazine, the English Society of Women Journalists, and the Women's Committee of the Constitution of National Defense. The subject of her address has been announced.

STUDENT SOLICITORS MAKE REPORTS TODAY
Management Must Have Details On Campaign Before Standing, Says Ruth Rogers

Reports of all students soliciting in the Memorial Union campus campaign will be made this week. There were no reports of the Beta's scoring at will. The Beta's scoring at will was allowed only one field basket, but the other two being scored by fouls. This victory gave the Beta's championship of the south end.

W. Y. DISCUSSIONS TO END NEXT WEEK
Leaders to Decide Whether Debates on University Life Have Been Worth While

The leader of the T. W. C. A. debate group will meet at dinner every night next week to decide whether the groups are debated worth while and whether they will be continued next year. The limited program continues one more week. The final topic will be student government at the University, says Lee Cline, chairman of the various groups. The groups have discussed the rabidness of sex girls, the lack of literary and journalistic and the open system for Freshman men's clubs.

It was brought out in a certain group that sex girls were not dandified as a group but that certain individuals were uncouth and should be kicked up. This complaint was made against unacademic girls. Much interest was shown in the discussion of the sponsor opinion. Many persons are in favor of the system and there is a possibility that it will be taken up seriously, says Miss Rogers.

The discussions have been gone on for several weeks.

MARGARET HAAS IMPROVING
Miss Margaret Haas '22 of Nebraska, who was injured last Friday, collapsed at the basketball game last Monday and is expected to return to the normal operations upon her ankle, which received a double sprain. She will be released from the hospital next Wednesday.

New Spring Suits, Coats and Dresses for Youthful Women

Are Now on Display Here

Come and see those stylish, handsome garments before you decide upon your Spring wardrobe.

As early in the season as it is, our showing of the new suits and coats is large and comprises every new fashion that has been sanctioned by style-authorities.

The season’s newest and most popular fabrics are represented, in a great diversity of patterns and in all the wanted colors. The workmanship and quality of every suit, coat and dress is beyond reproach, being equal to anything a custom tailor could produce at far above our prices.

The styles are conservative; that is a very important point. And they are lower than anything similar you’ve seen for many seasons. The values, too, are better than are usually offered and a very modest sum will secure for you a handsome, stylish and wholly desirable garment.

By making your selection NOW you will have a longer time to wear them.

Suits range in price from $29.50 to $100

Coats range in price from $18.50 to $100

Dresses range in price from $18.50 to $75.00
