SWMING ARTISTS IN FINAL WORKOUT FOR MEET HERE SATURDAY

Swimming of Minnesota Expected To Give Strong Competition

Swimming at the Iowa City Natatorium today and tomorrow will be the last formal competition for Minnesota swimming. The meet is sponsored by the law students and is to be followed by a dinner, business meeting, and a conference of coaches and the latter part dark.

The Philomathians sent on.

ROBINSON TO OFFICIATE

Coach Arthur Robinson found a new end this week in the person of C. L. Swanson, Minneapolis, Minn., Smith, open sophomore to the University of Minnesota. The工程施工 cannot carry the required amount of work and thus will be able to compete, but will be a valuable asset for the team next year.

Mr. Swanson is a college basketball player and is known for his cleverness.

THE COUNTRY COUSIN A CREDIT TO HEPZETS

Lilciette Everett and Ailen Wilson Played Leading Roles Most

The two leading characters, Atius J. Wilson as George Washington Reynolds II, and Lilicet Everett as Nancy Price, were greatly instrumental in making a success of the Hepzets' production. The dialogue and acting of Miss Wilson were the best features of the production.

A packed house attended the performance of the play. Those who watched the play were greatly impressed by the acting and the production.

LEADERS WRITE TO SENIORS

A bulletin entitled "A Open Letter to College Seniors," written by Prof. E. B. Shaeffer, dean of the college, has been recently published. All seniors are urged to read this bulletin which contains valuable information for the seniors of the College.

MORTGAGES

WHY THE FARMER BORROWS

Agriculture is the oldest and most important business in the world, and half of the world's population is engaged in tilling the soil. No business employs as many men or represents such a heavy investment of capital. The farmer—a producer—his product is indispensable to the life of the people, for the farmer is the great economic foundation of our national existence.

To a certain extent every business enterprise is financed by borrowed money, and the soundness of agriculture has been conducted in the same general way as any other business. Capital is required by the farmer to develop and expand his business. Borrowed money enables him to improve his equipment or to buy more land; to buy implements, horses or other live stock, to carry his grain for a better market; to erect buildings, and to make other additions and improvements which produce greater net earnings.

As an evidence of indebtedness against a certain piece of land, a farm mortgage is issued. The loan is made directly to the farmer by the banking house, and in turn is sold to the investor. The publicity department of this Company stalks ready at all times to answer questions or to enlighten students about farm mortgages. Inquiries about any phase of farm loans or mortgages will be given careful attention and explained in detail.

SCHOENHOFEN COMPANY

CHICAGO
Most Unusual are these New Georgette and Crepe-de-chine Blouses at $6.75

They give no hint of the late excessive advances in the price of silk fabrics.

Based on today's silk prices, they would have to sell for far more, and future Silk Blouse prices will inevitably be higher.

So that the prudent thing to do is to buy now, not only for the present, but for your future needs as well.

That you might know what to expect, let us say that silk fabrics are now selling in many instances at three times what they did less than a year ago.

It's just because we contracted for these Blouses months ago, that the extremely moderate price at which they are being offered is possible.

No. 21 is of Georgette Crepe with front effectively trimmed with dainty lace and lace inserts.

No. 23 Countless rows of fine lace and the liberal use of hemstitching appealingly trim this convertible collar model. Of Georgette Crepe.

THERE ARE SEVERAL OTHER EQUALLY ATTRACTIVE MODELS--THE QUANTITY IS LIMITED AND NONE OF THE STYLES CAN BE DUPLICATED.
