Variety is Promise of Men’s Glee Club in Concert Tonight

Thirty-six men will appear in varied roles in the annual summer’s glee club concert this evening in the natural science auditorium, at $1.15 per Glee Club ticket.

Tickets may be secured at Whittier House or from members of the glee club. More than 500 had been sold last night. The admission charge is much lower than in usual charged for open glee club concerts in order that the audience may be better able to follow Professor N. Hough, manager.

"If you know anyone who has not been assigned, we will see that the entire school is represented," Professor N. Hough, the manager, said.

"The program is considered much more important than was experienced at the previous concert, which was held in the fall. There will be a large number of students who have not had a chance to appear in public in the past, and all will be represented this evening," he added.

Practically all of the members have had one or more years of experience in glee club work. They have been working on the concert since late September and much vocal work has been spent in selecting and preparing the numbers.

Virtues and Objections to Honor System

From Day to Day the Iowa Will Carry a Series of Discussions, and Reports on the North of the Honor System at Other Institutions to Familiarize the Student Body with the Various Systems.

HONOR SYSTEM

As a result of the discussions at the last meeting, Staff and Circle arrived at the following conclusion in regard to the Honor System, and its relation to the University:

First—that the Honor System is a valuable institution.

Second—that the system should be not a remedy arbitrarily applied, but the outgrowth of majority student opinion.

Third—that present student attitude and conduct at Iowa do not justify the adoption of the system, immediately, or yet fully.

Fourth—that the failure publicly to express student opinion against dishonesty, is the end that the Honor System may be established at Iowa as soon as it is consistently possible.

Staff and Circle

AN OPINION

Alpha Xi Delta favors the establishment of the Honor System at the University with certain reservations.

In favor of the spirit of the honor system but object to the parts of it working which call for a signed statement from the student as to whether or not help has been given or received during examination, and the part which makes each student responsible for calling on the one caught cribbing.

Alpha Xi Delta feels that the Honor System will not work out in the University until there is a more comprehensive system of student self-government. It favors an educational campaign to inculcate the spirit of honor and honesty in education and class room work and believes that express disapproval of the cribber by other students will do more to put cheating in dishonor than any elaborate system of compulsory card signing.

Price per Suit or Price per Year

WHICH way do you figure clothes values — by the price you pay, or the service they give?

Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes are made for the man who figures on the "service" basis. They are not made to sell at a price—the price is determined after the makers have studied and made a garment that they know will give service. It's the only practical way to do it.

It means absolute satisfaction for you. We see that you get it.
