JENSEN AND WHITE LEAVE TOMORROW TO WRESTLE AT URBANA

Coach Schroeder Has Confidence In Two Wrestlers Who May Be Eligible Friday

FRANKO WILL NOT GO

Western Intercollegiate Gymnastics, Wrestling and Boxing Association Meet At Urbana Illinois Competition Among Big Ten College Athletes

Captains of the Iowan delegation to the Illinois-Indiana dual meet here are the Iowan delegates who will represent Iowa in the international athletic meet. Coach Schroeder has confidence in the following two wrestlers who may be eligible Friday.

Captain Leonard Johnson, 143 pounds, and Leonard W. White, 154 pounds, are two of Iowa's grapplers to participate in the western Intercollegiate gymnastic, wrestling and boxing association meet at Urbana, April 6.

The third member of the team is not certain yet but if Charles R. Jensen, 141 pounds, can appear at the meet, he will represent Old Gold in the 135-pound class. Coach Schroeder has made the above selection of men to the rescue in the Illinois-Iowa dual meet here early in the season. The 143-pound Iowa or Illinois point men for Iowa, will not make the trip because the two meet is so close together, and trouble with his lungs again, the result of being gassed while serving overseas, and Coach Schroeder fears that the strain of two days of hard wrestling would be too much for him.

Coaching Expectations

Captain Leonard Johnson, 143, and Leonard W. White, 154 pounds, are two or three men who will leave tomorrow (Thursday) at 14:15 o'clock for Urbana to participate in the preliminaries Friday afternoon at 2 p.m. The finals will be held Friday evening and the final Saturday evening along with the gymnastic and track performances.

Coach Schroeder is very proud of his three men and hopes to make a good showing in the conference meet.

Captain Leonard Johnson is 143 pounds and early part of the season on account of an injury that he re-injured last week. He has worked out recently and is in fine condition. He has already won seven matches and has made a very creditable showing, winning a decision and two by fall. The other two are equally strong and have a good future.

Most important of all, is the fact that the trio will represent Iowa, the school which is the home of the state, third in the conference.

The Iowan quartet of gymnasts will have their home meet at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Memorial Gymnasium with several events on the program.

ARTISTS ONLY MAY APER (FOR FESTIVAL COLLARS)

Limited space in the studio and the custom prevailing at art parties are given as reasons for the omission of names. The names of the students of department of graphic and plastic arts are to be held in the Department of Graphic Arts building Saturday, April 16, at 1:20 p.m. This explanation was given by Margaret Hayne, chairman of the committee on invitations, as the result of action taken by leaders of the various committees in charge of the shows.

THIRTEEN ASPIRANTS TO ENTER DRAMATICS

Candidates for University Players' Sign Names at Central Desk of General Library

Twenty-seven aspirants have signed names on the tray for membership in the University Players Club. A copy of the tray was sent to the president of the University Players Club.

The number of judges at the try-out has increased from three to five. Those of them were faculty members and two members of the University Players. Those competing will find four places on reserve on the tray which is to be used to enter aspirants for a position at the University Players Club.

The president of the University Players Club will hold auditions Saturday, April 16, from 9 to 12 o'clock in the gymnasium and at 2 p.m. and 4 o'clock in the afternoon. At the try-out girls will be sent to the prospective members of the University Players Club.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Osterman will entertain some one character to interpret himself in the play "The Tigril" by Russian author L. Dostoyevsky.

When your looks have turned to gray and the constant tick of the clock has stopped you and Alma Mater has won for you, there will come-rendezvous evenings when you will miss college days before a dream comes true. Then it is, you will live again the great importância of your University life, the members of the classroom, so dear, will be sweet. The reflection of meat life, perhaps, will be gray. But the re-experience of your University—by no means pleasant—but somethings with its healing—something which should have scored the memories of your beloved former a devoted one to Alma Mater. That something is TRADITION.

There is no word is hallowed absolute on the campus. The University and tradition are running in counter orbits. Campus traditions can be created on the fingers of one hand. Homecoming, the Law Ball, and Moon Day, are, perhaps, the best established. But class traditions, aside from the parties, and all-tradition, and un-tradition have vanished or have never existed. The leading campus traditions today seem to be darkness, and movies. These are accepted by all and apparently discredited normally, while the world’s traditions are sometimes forgotten.

Suppose, for there is no harm in supposing, that Iowa should inaugurate an annual May Festival in which hundreds of University women could play parts in music offered by the peer of orchestras in the University, and that this occasion might be "open house" to the old grads in the spring as is Homecoming in the fall. Suppose that the women athletes held an annual field day. Suppose a "Hells Week" was observed
