"I serve anything anyone wants" — Jerry

THAT'S Jerry's idea of personal service—it's the idea which gave the COFFEE ROOM its early popularity.

With Jerry back on the job you'll find the Coffee Room a more satisfying place to eat than ever before.

HOOVER'S CANDIDACY IN THE RECENT PRIMARIES

Primary editor at Columbia University, is畎ian in a large amount of respect. What their handwriting tells—

England's most distinguished novelist writes a distinguished hand—but more to the point—his newest and most distinguished novel is appearing in Cosmopolitan. Today begin "In Char- cery" which tells about Soames Forsyte who believes that a wife is part of a man's property.

Miss Hurst's hand shows a disregard for details. Her novel "Star Dust" does not. In fact, the insight Miss Hurst shows into the heart of Lily Backer—the tragedy of her struggles for self determination—her loveless marriage—all prove that Annie Hurst knows the essential details that go to make up the joys and the sorrows of life. Get the new Cosmopolitan and begin "Star Dust." You'll find it.

Mr. Kyne's writing shows that he was born and brought up in the great Northwest and knows its people. Better still, his novel "Kindred of the Dust", now appearing in Cosmopolitan, gives ample evidence of Peter B. Kyne's knowledge of the great hearted, romantic loving, vigorous folk who move in this drama of the passion of youthful hearts.

There are seven Cosmopolitan standard short-stories and four great special features in the issue you can buy today.
