COMMERCER FRATHOMY GRANTED A CHAPTER OF DELTA SIGMA PI

Installation of Epsilon Chapter
To Take Place First Week in May

GODLERS Club, Organized Locally
Several Family Ages Descended
Names—The Students of Commerce
Department Are Charter members

The Godlers club, organized locally several months ago by students in the school of commerce, has been granted a chapter of Delta Sigma Pi, national professional commerce fraternity. Delta Sigma Pi was founded at New York University in 1920. Until now several chapters have been organized in the country, but there are at present only four chapters. The charter at Iowa will be presented at the Godlers meeting at New York City.

IOWA HAS FIFTH CHAPTER

President Explains Purpose
A Godlers meeting held by the banker hotel Saturday evening in honor of Mr. W. G. Wright of Chicago, national president of Delta Sigma Pi. At that banquet President Wright explained the purpose of the fraternity which is to foster the study of business in universities; to encourage scholarship and the advancement of students for their mutual advancement by research and practice; to promote closer affiliation between the commercial world and students of commerce; and to further a higher or standard of commercial welfare of the community.

Two Charter Members
The Epsilon chapter of Delta Sigma Pi will be installed during the first week of May. The two charter members are Paul K. Lovgren, 21, of the business college and schedule of classes and 22, of Des Moines; Alfred H. Ribaska, 21, of the business college.

A banquet open to all members of the men's fraternity at the Godlers meeting on May 5, at which time a charter of the fraternity will be presented to the Godlers chapter.

Overalls Movements Spread to Campus

The overall craze has reached Iowa City and the University for seven Phi Delta Chi members of the pharmacy and chemical fraternity, appeared in them yesterday, and they were the real blue and white.

"Everyone wanted to know the prices of them," said one of the new enthusiasts. "$2.75 isn't much like $104 out.

The clothing stores are busy, selling the eveshield suits. One student said that he sold a number on Saturday and he had sold more than ten since then.

The pharmacists say that they are going to wear them until they wear out, and ideas will sometimes become realities. Some cheerful L. A. stu-

Removing Vote Restriction For Association By Overwhelming Vote at Cleveland

FROM MARY BASH

Student Secretary tells meeting of letter that the University women'sfraternity Playway delinquent their speeches—President to be in her position again.

Several of the vote restrictions in the Y. W. C. A., which limited the privileges of ballot to members of the University women's fraternity, were removed. One of the reasons for this was one of the biannual conventions of the association which is being held at Cleveland, according to a letter received by the University women's fraternity. Mary Bash, student secretary. The convention closed Monday, and is being expected in Iowa City sometime tomorrow.

VOTE FOR AMENDMENT

The amendment which has been held at the last two conventions, the Los Angeles amendment was passed with 121 votes for adoption and 216 votes against adoption, according to Miss Bash's letter. This overwelmimg vote for the amendment draws the plus signs as a surprise to all those who have attended previous conventions.

The Iowa University women's fraternity amendment were presented.

Professor Bash, however, was able to see himself on the membership basis which was taken up at the Los Angeles convention. "Iowa women," she said, "enjoy every vote, language, legal words, and mercy, but every Once and all, the most, the earnest, the spirit forth, the most, etc. in the University." DIAGRAMS

The Daily Iowan is about the only tradition that we have to do with, and it is made up to us to uphold that tradition. So if you are a loyal student you will rear your eye on this. On the other hand, if you wish to rise on your ignorance, do not leave it alone, but by all means, if you are exposing the truth, you have spent six months in school without even learning how to be a deep.

IOWA AS A TRADITION

The University is about to celebrate its centennial this year. Iowa, a state of service, is the beacon of the Midwest. Its traditions are lacking in presence.
