LA MAISON FRANCAISE WILL IMBUE STUDENTS WITH L'ESPRIT FRANCAIS

Say Daddy, does your memory ever take you back to sunny (?) France, where little black eyed Marie lives in La Maison Francaise? Then you will be interested in knowing that La Maison Francaise is to be transferred to this campus for the summer season. It is the purpose of the French department to provide a place where those students and teachers who desire first hand knowledge of French life and conversation one season without the difficulty and expense of a trip to France.

The plan is to replace as far as possible the French environment. One of the University's cottages in the Bell annex, has been secured for this purpose. Mlle. Lucille Francois, Instructor in Romance languages, will have charge of La Maison Francaise as resident teacher and matron.

The French atmosphere will be supplied by constant use of the French language. French conversation will be used even at meals, a private room at Caverly hall having been secured for the French house residence. The report that “in absentia” would give the French touch in the dinner could not be underestimated.

Programs, short plays, dances, and songs, all in French, will keep the residents in touch with French life. Short courses in French are available to non-resident members of the club with almost no exceptions. Pledges supplied as resident teacher and matron.
