CADET REGIMENT HOLDS
FORMAL GUARD MOUNT

Variation was intended into the regular routine yesterday morning on Iowa field when the regimental field was mounted in the usual formation, with pike bearers, in the regular manner. Regular morning drill hours, from 6 until 7 a.m. Dr. L. V. Strange acted as officer of the day. The officers of the guard were: L. J. Pien and Lieut, Carl D. Lutz. Captains Leland E. White was adjutant.

The regiment will participate in field exercises on May 15 and May 22 when each company will conduct separate exercises as well as drill in military drill and athletics exercises.

HAWKEYE BOARD WILL APPOINT HEADS IN JUNE

The editor-in-chief and the business manager of the new year's edition of "The Daily Iowan," will be appointed by the Hawkeye board of trustees at the annual meeting of the board on June 7, according to Prof. Charles F. Weir, secretary of the board.

Applications for those positions may be submitted to the board any time now, he said. All applications in good standing, who will be juniors and seniors, will be eligible for these positions. Preferences will be given, however, to those who have assisted in the preparation of the past year's issue, he pointed out.

TWO MEETS SCHEDULED FOR TRACK SATURDAY

State High School Contest Will Be Held in Connection With Minnesota Meet

Saturday will be a big day for American track here with a Big Ten dual meet with Minnesota and the fourteenth annual track and field meet in which over 200 high school athletes from all over the state will compete. The admissions for high school meet will be run off successfully and the Hawkeyes will be held the afternoon along the dual meet.

The Hawkeyes and Indians meet a third of the past, a meet which attracted Iowa little competition except in the short dashes, the Hawkeyes now have turned their attention to the infield and games and have completed Drake for two years, Crawford, and Weller and Cottons will run the hurdle.

In the quarter, Beck, Grelik, and Ogren present a trio that look good to run away with the jungles and excited breaking of the event. The half mile races find Blowers, Halvorson, Hall, and a Hart producing much such as Indian, Iowa and mixture, the Hawkeyes have now turned their attention to the infield and games and have completed Drake for two years, Crawford, and Weller and Cottons will run the hurdle.

Judge Weller said, but only one Hurst, a junior, will have the time.

Keith P. Price

Lorna James Keith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Keith, was married to Donald W. Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Price, on April 30 at the First Congregational church in Oakland Park, III. The bride is an Iowa City girl and will be graduated from the Mary Thompson training school for nurses on May 12. Mr. Price was graduated from the college of liberal arts in 1918. When he cancelled his registration he was a junior in the college of law. He has given up his professional career for a business career, and will take over the control of the Price’s chain hardware store. He is a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Phi Delta Delta fraternal orders and is a member of the national rifle team. He holds the world championship as the one armed marksmanship expert.

Mr. Price is building a home on E. Kirkwood avenue, and the young people expect to move in in the summer. Mrs. Price will take great pride in the success trained students during the summer.

OFFER NEW SUMMER WORK

Americanization, Welfare, and Commerce Courses Are Available

New and special courses will be offered in the summer session of the University this year. As Americanization is offered for the first time this summer, for the purpose of teaching teachers in the Americanization of foreign-born children. New courses in child welfare, in various fields of economics, with special attention given to income tax problems and their practical solution at the present time, and a new course of courses in the work of society superintendents, including problems of finance and administration, will be given.

Additional courses are offered in English, French, and Spanish, and advanced courses in home economics and journalism. In addition to the field course conducted for several years in collaboration with the University of Chicago, the University provides two new field courses, one in the Black Hills of South Dakota.

For those contemplating writing a proprietary course for nurses will be conducted during the first term covering anatomy, botany, chemistry, and the principles of nursing.

Eleven weeks is the total length of the session extending from June 16 to August 8; the first six weeks from June 16 to July 21; the second term of five weeks, from July 27 to August 31. Students may begin at the beginning of either term and may pursue their work for five, six weeks, or for the entire period.

EPISCOPAL SISTERS

TO BE HERE SUNDAY

Bishop Theodore Irving House of Columbus, Ohio, and Bishop Harry S. Layfield of Des Moines, will take part in the confirmation services at Trinity Episcopal church. Sunday morning, May 8. Bishop Price will deliver the University vesper service Sunday afternoon, with the service at both the morning and evening services at Trinity Church.

Sunday will be an important day for Episcopalians in the University, said Bishop Price, president of the Moratorium club, yesterday."It happens that two block of such prominence are not here on the same day. They will take part in all services at Trinity church, including a breakfast at the Parish house at 9 o’clock Sunday morning.”

STUDENT DRIVE TO OPEN

Organization Needs Get Final Instructions This Noon

Final instructions for the third student campaign for subscriptions to the Iowa Memorial Union will be given at a luncheon at the Hotel English tomorrow when ten members of the executive committee and Icery on the campus will gather with Prof. C. H. Wellin, Prof. Forrest E. Riseng, and Miss Ruth Rogers, full secretary of the Union. The campaign will be in the nature of a "pageant." Students for subscriptions from University students will start this afternoon. Two thousand and eighty-five cards were sent out to the canvassers yesterday and they will soon take their tenacity day campaign with instructions to see every student personally. Progress of the campaign will be reported each day, starting Thursday.

Each fraternity and sorority will have four solicitors. "They have been chosen from the strongest numbers in each organization," Miss Rogers said yesterday. Each organization will canvass between 75 and 115 students.

Although every society has rejected its solicitors, thirteen fraternity and sorority organizations have failed to do so. Among them are Phi Delta Phi, Sigma Pi, Epsilon Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Alpha Delta Chi, Lambda Theta, Sigma Nu, Phi Alpha Delta, Phi Alpha Sigma, Alpha Xi Delta, Kappa Phi, Eta Omega Tau, Omega Delta, and Sigma Delta.
