OGRIN WREATHS THE JUNIOR LAWS TO CIGARS
Prof. Percy Beechwell treated the Junior Law class for cigars yesterday morning. About three weeks ago Professor Beechwell held his junior law class in private five minutes or less. Although no great objections were voiced on this incident, Professor Beechwell thought it advisable to square himself in some way. He promised to pass the cigars if he ever again exceeded the time limit. Tuesday morning everything went properly in the assembly room, and Professor Beechwell grew more and more enthusiastic as the time for dis-

IOWA FIELD 3 P. M.
Prof. Jacob Van der Zee has contributed two articles to the October number of the "Iowa Journal of History and Politics," a magazine published quarterly at Iowa City by the State Historical Society of Iowa. One of these articles is "A Review of the Work of the Iowa Code Commission," and the other is entitled "Increasing the Compiled Code." These articles were prepared by Mr. Van der Zee upon the request of the superintendents of the State Historical Society of Iowa. The University granted Mr. Van der Zee six months leave of absence last spring in order that he could make the index to the compiled code.
