May Robichon Likes Role of an Ordinary Woman Off Stage...

When May Robichon walked into the Jefferson hotel last evening she was not what one would call familiar with the part she was to play. A short and trim figure she was, with a small but shapely figure, and a face that was somewhat sour-looking. Yet she knew her work perfectly, and that is what made her successful.

She has been in the movies for some time, and has had several small parts in them. But this is her first major role, and she was naturally nervous about it.

When she first came to the Jefferson, she was not at all certain that she would be able to carry off the part. But she thought that if she could manage to get a foothold in the role, she would be able to keep it.

The part is that of a woman who is tired of life, and who has grown old and indifferent to everything. She has given up all hope of ever finding happiness, and has resigned herself to her fate.

May Robichon was born in Australia, and has been in the movies for some time. She is a natural beauty, and has a way of making people like her.
